Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

January 23, 2011
Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Isaiah 8:23—93
Psalm 27
1 Corinthians 1:10-13,17
Matthew 4:12-23

The holy Gospel according to John: When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee.

He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, that what had been said through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled:

Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles, the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death light has arisen.

From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.” As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen. He said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.” At once they left their nets and followed him.

He walked along from there and saw two other brothers, James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They were in a boat, with their father Zebedee, mending their nets.

He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him.

He went around all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people.

Focus Questions:

- 1) Describe a time when you dropped everything to follow someone else’s lead.
- 2) How deeply have you thought about God’s call to you?
- 3) Relate a time when you changed in response to something you heard or read.

Family and children’s question:

What gets in the way of following Jesus?

PRAY FOR THE DECEASED

Carolina Maria Gaudio, Cecelia Keller, our deceased loved ones and our deceased servicemen and women.

FROM FR. MIDURA

OUR LITURGY OF SUNDAY—The psalmist proclaimed that God writes his law in our hearts and gives us ears open to obedience. We ask God’s forgiveness for closing our ears or our hearts to the Lord’s commandments.

YOUTH MINISTRY WEEKEND RETREAT—Please include in your prayers all our young men and women on the Youth Ministry Retreat at the Salesian Retreat Center in upstate New York.

LONG ISLAND CATHOLIC—Our diocesan Catholic newspaper is a vital tool for teaching and evangelizing the faith, and also for providing us with news about the Church from Rockville Centre to Rome. We urge you to use either the Long Island Catholic envelope in your weekly envelope packet, or the special envelopes that are available where you get the bulletin or the cut out in today’s bulletin in order to make your contribution of $20 – less than 45 cents per issue – so that The Long Island Catholic can continue to be delivered each week into your home and the homes of Catholics throughout Long Island.

MARCH FOR LIFE—The annual March for Life will take place in Washington, DC on Monday, January 24. Anyone interested in participating is asked to call the Church Office on Monday, January 17, by Noon.

WINE TASTING—Thanks to all who helped at our Wine Tasting event last Sunday; to Michelle and Robert of Banfi Wines, to those who helped set up and take down, to Dottie and Judy and the Chinese Auction and to Betty and Theresa for all the desserts and to Barbara, Evelyn, Joe and Ben for the chocolate bar and to those who cooked and cleaned and to the 135 people who had a great time together. I am sure that we missed someone, so we also say “thanks” for being part of the day. We will have some photos of the day included in a future bulletin.

WHAT’S HAPPENING AROUND OUR FACILITY—The two heating units at the entrance to the Church and Walden Hall were repaired and made operational again to provide an air curtain for those entering and departing. The entrance to Walden Hall was carpeted fully to minimize the danger of tripping. The Christmas decorations were gradually taken down and packed away for another season. We did our best with the snow removal and we hope that everyone continues to be careful! Progress!

CALENDAR CLUB 2011—We invite everyone to join our Calendar Club for the year 2011. Each number costs $25 and each number is eligible for the daily drawing. You will get (5) numbers for $100. If you want to give a Calendar Club number(s) as a gift to someone, you can indicate that when you return the registration form. Minimum prize for the daily drawing is $25 with higher amounts on certain holidays and religious feasts. Use the cut-out in the bulletin or use the form you received in the mail. We will not begin drawing numbers for 2011 until the end of January so that everyone has the opportunity to become a member for 2011.

MASS BOOK 2011 & 2012—Everyone is invited to arrange Masses for their loved ones at your convenience at the Church Office. Please have your dates written down on paper when you come to the Church Office in case we have to arrange for them at another time. The stipend for inclusion in Multiple Masses is $10. The stipend for single Masses is $15. If you wish to have a Mass folder, the cost is $5 additional.

BIBLE STUDY—Fr. Bob’s Bible Study will resume this Sunday and Monday at the usual times and place.

THE COLD & FLU SEASON—We all know how easily we can get a cold and transmit it to others. Just a precautionary note to say that if you have a cold and someone extends their hands for a handshake or they wish to give you a kiss, be thoughtful enough to tell them you have a cold that you wish to keep to yourself. Also, if you use a Kleenex, take it home with you rather than place it in the hymn book rack or on the floor! Receiving the Eucharist through the cup necessitates an awareness of not transmitting your cold by refraining from the cup until you are over your cold.

LITURGY OF THE WORD WITH CHILDREN will resume this Sunday, January 16, at the 9:15am Mass. Our 4-5-6 year olds are invited during the Mass to go to Walden Hall for their Liturgy of the Word with prayer and song. They return to Mass when the Collection begins.

2010 CONTRIBUTION STATEMENTS—If you would like a record of your contributions to the parish, please complete and return the request form either through the Collection or by mailing it to the Church Office. We will e-mail it to you or respond by mail. Faith Direct participants will receive statements from Faith Direct. Supporters of the Catholic Ministries Appeal will receive a statement from that office.

It is God who Chooses.

He decided to choose you!

He decided to give you the right to choose, and stated profoundly to choose life that you and your descendants may live.

He even offered a way to amend poor choices.

Choose Him who made a choice to love you with the risk He would not be loved in return.

JUSTICE & PEACE

Continuing from last week. As a people we struggle against the spirit of evil that permeates our society in the form of racism, sexism, militarism, materialism, and every "ism" and phobia that frustrates the fulfillment of God's plan for creation that we must be one. In the book of Revelation (12:1-2,6) there is a story of the pregnant woman who comes face to face with the dragon who is ready to devour her child. The woman dared to issue forth a tiny act of love. Can we do the same today with the issues of violence that we face? With unemployment so high today they are increasingly more robberies than before. People are desperate. We are told by the police to keep our windows and doors and garage locked. We are being asked, after examination of conscience, to summon similar courage and hope and give birth to acts of love and generosity to those hurting. Do we believe that if such a seed like this falls to the ground and dies, it will bear much fruit? Jesus taught us that life will overcome death and light will overcome darkness. Martin Luther King put it so well "Truth crushed to earth will rise again. No lie can live forever." Jesus encouraged us to remember our promised presence in every moment, and to run the race to the end. What does this all mean in terms of justice and peace? Do we dare to issue forth a tiny act of love to those who are suffering today due the unemployment situation? The answer is ours to make. If we have been blessed with abundance, God said to share with others so that they may live.

Justice is a parish affair.

Discover needs and act justly.

Together we can make a difference.

The 17th is the observance of Martin Luther King's Birthday.

The 20th is St. Fabian and St. Sebastian.

The 21st is St. Agnes.

The 22nd is St. Vincent.

COUNTING CATALOGUES IS OVER! WHAT'S YOUR

NUMBER? - Either this weekend or next weekend, put your tally coupon in the little gift box that you will find on a table in the Church Lobby. The winner will be announced on the weekend of February 5/6.

FEEDING THE PIGGY—You are always invited to lend your support of the “piggy” in the Church lobby by placing any spare quarters into the tube. It goes to Heifer International which enables a family in poor areas of our country to obtain farm animals for their daily use.

RESPECT LIFE NEWS

BABY BOTTLE FUNDRAISER - This weekend we kicked off the Baby Bottle Campaign to benefit The Life Center of Long Island. The weekend to bring those filled bottles in is February 12-13.

The Life Center is a pregnancy help center that counsels women and men who are experiencing an unexpected pregnancy. They provide maternity housing, medical care referrals, cribs, car seats, diapers and ALL other baby items that are needed.

Remember that all it takes is your spare change in a baby bottle and heartfelt prayer to make a big, positive difference for all those we serve. May every drop of a coin remind you to pray with your whole heart for the lives of our pre-born children.

CIRCLE OF WOMEN

It is the mission of the Circle of Women Book Group to focus on the spiritual influence of contemporary writing that facilitates our own reflections of God's action in our daily lives. For further information, call Ann at 265.8302.
