Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

January 30, 2011
Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Zephaniah 2:3;3:12-13
Psalm 146
1 Corinthians 1:26-31
Matthew 5:1-12

The holy Gospel according to Matthew:

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him.

He began to teach them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
 for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they who mourn,
 for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
 for they will inherit the land.

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
 for they will be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful,
 for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the clean of heart,
 for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
 for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me.

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.”

Focus Questions:

- 1) Which one of the beatitudes or blessings speaks to you at this time?
- 2) What does our society say makes people happy? What makes you happy?
- 3) These blessings describe what a disciple looks like. How difficult is it to live out this discipleship?

Family and children’s question:

Matthew presents Jesus as the teacher. What do you do to be a better student of Jesus’ teaching?

(We ask those who wish to have the sick listed in the bulletin to submit their names through the collection or drop the name(s) off at the Church Office. Please use the cut-out in the bulletin for your convenience. This current list expires the end of January.)

PRAY FOR THE DECEASED

Sister Maria Gonzales, Christine Duffy, Randolph Gari, Josephine Maietta, Nellie Baliunas, John Scaduto, our deceased loved ones and our deceased servicemen and women.

FROM FR. MIDURA

OUR LITURGY FOR SUNDAY—We have seen a great light who is Jesus, the Messiah. He heals us of our sins and he is our unity and our peace.

MARCH FOR LIFE—This Monday let us remember in our prayers all those who will take part in the March For Life. The gathering remembers the tragic Supreme Court decision (Roe vs Wade) which legalized abortion in our country. Let us all make this day a day of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion. Let us all continue to pray for full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right of life.

HOLY HOUR—There will be a Holy Hour of Prayer and Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament this coming Monday evening at 7:45pm. All are invited to attend.

LONG ISLAND CATHOLIC—Our diocesan Catholic newspaper is a vital tool for teaching and evangelizing the faith, and also for providing us with news about the Church from Rockville Centre to Rome. We urge you to use either the Long Island Catholic envelope in your weekly envelope packet, or the special envelopes that are available where you get the bulletin or the cut out in today's bulletin in order to make your contribution of $20 – less than 45 cents per issue – so that The Long Island Catholic can continue to be delivered each week into your home and the homes of Catholics throughout Long Island.

COLLECTION FOR THE CHURCH IN LATIN

AMERICA—This weekend everyone is invited to support this annual collection. This year's theme, Keep Faith, summarizes the purpose of the collection as well the challenges faced by the Catholic Church in Latin America and the Caribbean. Donations to the collection will support evangelization in some of the poorest parts of the Church by promoting lay-leadership programs as well as the education of seminarians and religious brothers and sisters who, together, help keep the Catholic faith alive in the part of the world where the majority of Catholics live. Though the USCCB Subcommittee for the Church in America Latina mostly funds pastoral projects, in exceptional circumstances funds from the collection are used to rebuild the Church where natural disasters and other circumstances have devastated it.

WHAT'S HAPPENING AROUND OUR FACILITY—It probably affected a lot more people than us, but the snow and ice pack on our roofs blocked the drains and the melting snow and ice had no other place to go but through the ceilings in Walden Hall and Kirwin Hall and Parish Outreach. So now we have to wait for the thaw and the dry out. Progress!

CALENDAR CLUB 2011—We invite everyone to join our Calendar Club for the year 2011. Each number costs $25 and each number is eligible for the daily drawing. You will get (5) numbers for $100. If you want to give a Calendar Club number(s) as a gift to someone, you can indicate that when you return the registration form. Minimum prize for the daily drawing is $25 with higher amounts on certain holidays and religious feasts. Use the cut-out in the bulletin or use the form you received in the mail. We will not begin drawing numbers for 2011 until the end of January so that everyone has the opportunity to become a member for 2011.

MASS BOOK 2011 & 2012—Everyone is invited to arrange Masses for their loved ones at your convenience at the Church Office. Please have your dates written down on paper when you come to the Church Office in case we have to arrange for them at another time. The stipend for inclusion in Multiple Masses is $10. The stipend for single Masses is $15. If you wish to have a Mass folder, the cost is $5 additional.

THE COLD & FLU SEASON—We all know how easily we can get a cold and transmit it to others. Just a precautionary note to say that if you have a cold and someone extends their hands for a handshake or they wish to give you a kiss, be thoughtful enough to tell them you have a cold that you wish to keep to yourself. Also, if you use a Kleenex, take it home with you rather than place it in the hymn book rack or on the floor! Receiving the Eucharist through the cup necessitates an awareness of not transmitting your cold by refraining from the cup until you are over your cold.

2010 CONTRIBUTION STATEMENTS—If you would like a record of your contributions to the parish, please complete and return the request form either through the Collection or by mailing it to the Church Office. We will e-mail it to you or respond by mail. Faith Direct participants will receive statements from Faith Direct. Supporters of the Catholic Ministries Appeal will receive a statement from that office.

YOUNG AT HEART MEETING CHANGE

Our January 21 meeting has been rescheduled for Friday, January 28, in Walden Hall at the usual meeting time.

PARISH OUTREACH & ST. VINCENT de PAUL NEWS

Our mission to help people incorporate St. Thomas More Parish Outreach and the St. Thomas St. Vincent de Paul Conference.

PARISH FOOD PANTRY

Once again, thank you for responding so generously to our call for food for the Pantry after Christmas. Your response has enabled us to restock our shelves!

Monthly Caregivers Support Group

If you are taking care of a loved one with a long-term illness, you are invited to join a support group facilitated by a licensed Social Worker with homecare experience. This is a safe and productive place to raise concerns, discuss problems and find solutions with help from others who are also facing the same challenges. Meetings are held on the second Wednesday of each month at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church, Centerport. Please call 754-9045 to register. Next meetings: Wed. Jan. 29 and Wed. Feb. 9, 2011 at 10:00am.

FRUITS THAT GROW IN VULNERABILITY

There is a great difference between successfulness and fruitfulness. Success comes from strength, control and respectability. A successful person has the energy to create something, to keep control over its development, and to make it available in large quantities. Success brings many rewards and often fame. Fruits, however, come from weakness and vulnerability. And fruits are unique. A child is the fruit conceived in vulnerability, community is the fruit born through shared brokenness, and intimacy is the fruit that grows through touching one another's wounds. Let's remind one another that what brings us true joy is not successfulness but fruitfulness.

JUSTICE & PEACE

Continuing from last week. Our faith tells us God created us because He loved us not because He needed us. We are the result of the overflowing of His love. He did not come in blinding glory. He came as a baby in a manger. He chose as parents the village carpenter and a young girl. Not the high and mighty. Through His coming in this humble way, He told the world "I love all my people, but yes, I have a special concern for those the world pushes to the margins." God hears and sees the burdens of His people. He hears their groans. He identifies so closely he took the form of a servant, obedient to the cross. God will give us comfort even if we suffer. He gives us solace and hope for justice and peace in the future. As Christians can we help hasten that future to bring racial and social justice to the forefront by taking action? What does this all mean in terms of justice and peace? Faith is the driving force which produces our creed and the reason we must follow it. In that sense faith is at the heart of the whole movement for social and racial justice. When we try to answer the why of racial injustice faith can help because faith gives us the command and direction to take. Can we react to the creed we recite every week? When we leave the Church we are told to serve God and to love one another. Can we do that and truly live our faith?

Justice is a parish affair.

Discover needs and act justly.

Together we can make a difference.

The 25th is The Conversion of St. Paul.
