A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

Focus Questions:

1. In today's Gospel, Jesus prepares his followers for a future without him. Relate an experience when a family member, teacher or co-worker left you with wisdom or memories for you to use in the future.
2. Name a time when injustice caused you to search for the truth.
3. For the most part, who do you address your prayer to, the Father, Jesus or the Holy Spirit? Why do you feel most comfortable doing that?

Family and children's question

Who can you rely on to tell you the truth?

IS GOD CALLING YOU?

- ◆ Do you feel His tug to join us in the celebration of the Eucharist?
- ◆ Have you felt the desire to learn more about becoming a Catholic?

If any of these apply to you, consider our parish RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) process. For information contact: Ann Russo —e-mail redaa@aol.com or by phone at 543-2740, Arlene Zuzzolo—e-mail johnandao@gmail.com or by phone at 543-6499, or the Church Office at 234-5551.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

The Solemn Feast of Pentecost: The Greek Word 'Pentecost' means 'Fifty'. We take this word Pentecost to mean 'Holy Spirit', the third Person of the Trinity. We attribute 'Pentecost' to the Holy Spirit who came upon the Apostles and others on the fiftieth day of the Resurrection of Jesus. The name of the day became the name of the Holy Spirit.

Birthday of the Church: This is the day the official preaching about Jesus Christ began by those who believed in Jesus. On this day 3,000 persons came forward to believe in Jesus and joined the group of believers. Thus began the Church of believers. Happy Birthday to the Church! Many happy returns of the day to our Community of Believers of which we too are a part. Happy Birthday to us!

We are the Temple of the Holy Spirit: In one of the descriptions of the Trinity, we call God the Father, Creator, God the Son Jesus Christ, our Redeemer and the Holy Spirit, the Sanctifier. God the Creator has created us, keeps us alive and calls every one of us to live God's purpose in this world. God the Son reveals God the Father's self-giving love and reconciles us with God whenever we fall short of living God's Purpose. God the Holy Spirit lives in our hearts to inspire and strengthen us to live God's purpose. Through all the sacraments we receive the Holy Spirit comes and dwells in us, thus making us God's Temple.

Red Balloons: Our Youth Group volunteers will tie red balloons to our cars on Sunday to remind us of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit which we received in Baptism, Confirmation and in other Sacraments. As the balloons rise up, may the gifts of the Holy Spirit raise us up from all our struggles to a higher plane of God's purpose which we are called to live.

Parish Feast: The feast of our Patron is on June 22. We will celebrate the feast on the weekend of June 22 & 23. Please mark your calendar. I invite you all to be a part of our celebration. This is something for us all to be part of and to express our joy of being the Parish family of St. Thomas More.

Feast Weekend Dinner: We will celebrate the feast with a barbeque dinner on June 22 after the 5:00 pm Mass. The cost of the dinner is just $40, $5 less than last year! (such a deal!) Tickets will be available soon.

Feast Weekend Pancake Breakfast: On Sunday, June 23, after the 8:00am, 9:15am, and 10:45am Masses, we will have a pancake breakfast. We will have a tasty and enticing menu in the real mood of celebrating our Patron, Saint Thomas More.

Feast Weekend Family Fun & Talent Show: The parish will have a talent show inside and a kid-friendly activity fair outside. The talent show starts at 1:30pm; the festivities will last until 4:30pm. This is the occasion to appreciate the talent of our youth and enjoy the day with fun, games, kid activities, and a dollar barbeque menu. Please keep reading the bulletin to learn more about this event.

Raffle Tickets: Tickets for the annual Feast Weekend raffle are available for sale – $50 a ticket; three for $100. The first prize is $10,000, second prize $2,000, third $1,000 and fourth is $500. Please extend your support by purchasing the tickets. Winning $10,000 couldn't hurt either.

Annual Fishing Trip is on Tuesday, June 25 from 8:00 am to 12 noon. This year the trip is in memory of our late beloved Pastor, Msgr. Midura. The trip is both fun and prayer. We will fish, have some snacks, and end it with the celebration of Mass. We have limited places. Please rush for yours. Please call the rectory office for reservations. Tickets are $47.

Big Thanks to K of C: The past weekend, the Knights of Columbus did an excellent job with the Mother's Day Flower Sale. Thank you, Knights!

Parish Kitchen: There have been many changes in the past week. As you can tell, the outside lawn has been dug up to install a new grease trap and septic system. On the inside, the walls were insulated and covered with sheet-rock, tile was laid down, and the hood for the stove was installed. All of the contractors continue to work very hard to finish our kitchen in the near future.

JUSTICE & PEACE

Continuing from last week on finding hope in a world of darkness. In our last column we talked about knowing about ourselves. All of us have viewpoints but do we realize that it is a view from a point? This is something that we have to know and admit. Most of us live with a certain amount of blindness that is the cause of much suffering in the world. Many of us are caught up in our own self and do not or do not want to see the bigger picture. Unless we are aware of this, there is little chance of moving out past the self. We expect order in our lives and in the world but that is missing today in a lot of countries. We see destruction and disorder. A good example is 9-11. The rug was pulled out from under us. Another example is the recent bombing in Boston at the finish line of a marathon race. Dzhokhar Tsarnaev has been captured and is giving information. We will be hearing much more as time goes on. The cross is a good example of disorder, and Jesus was crucified because of opposites. He upset the common thought and teaching of the day. What does this all mean in terms of justice and peace? Jesus put us on a journey of discovery. It was a journey of change, a metanoia. The sad part of this freedom that Jesus offered us is that we prefer conformity and group loyalty over real change. This is what Francis wanted to change. He was happy when he broke away from the bounds of society. He was free from the darkness and bathed in the light of Christ Jesus. Francis did not fight or flee his church and society. He came up with a third way of compassionate learning. These are the things we have to know and understand before change can occur for real progress in transforming the world. This is the Christian hope for change. It starts with ourselves and moves outward.

*Justice is a parish affair.
Discover needs and act justly.
Together we can make a difference.*

FEEDING THE PIGGY—You are always invited to lend your support of the “piggy” in the Church lobby by placing any spare quarters into the tube.

PARISH OUTREACH & ST. VINCENT de PAUL NEWS

Our mission: to help people incorporate St. Thomas More Parish Outreach and the St. Thomas St. Vincent de Paul Conference.

Spring has arrived – and with it, of course, the pollens that make us sneeze and our eyes water! Let that not stop us from enjoying the beauty of the season, however, and appreciating Nature’s bounty all around us. Our Outreach clients need your bounty in another way, in the form of food donations. Our storeroom is low at present, and we need canned vegetables, rice, peanut butter, tea, cookies, sugar.

We are always in need of “necessary” items like toothpaste, shampoo, soap, deodorant, toilet paper and paper towels and coffee. Of course, we always need meat items such as chicken cutlets, hamburgers, hot dogs and buns and bread. If you have anything you wish to donate, please bring it to Outreach (in the Religious Education building across the street from St. Thomas More) or you can leave non-perishable items in the bin in the outer lobby of the church.

St. Patrick’s Singles Fellowship

Attention all single, divorced, widowed, or separated “baby boomer” generation folks who are interested in conversation, event planning, or meeting new people! The St.

Patrick’s Fellowship Group meets the third Sunday of every month in the back of St. Patrick's school, from 10:00a.m. to 12 noon. Coffee, tea, cake and conversation will be served. The donation amount is listed at the entrance. For further information, please call the Outreach Department at 631-265-2668 from 10am – 2pm on weekdays.
