A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

At that time the Lord appointed seventy-two others whom he sent ahead of him in pairs to every town and place he intended to visit. He said to them, “The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest. Go on your way; behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves. Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals; and greet no one along the way. Into whatever house you enter, first say, ‘Peace to this household.’ If a peaceful person lives there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. Stay in the same house and eat and drink what is offered to you, for the laborer deserves his payment. Do not move about from one house to another. Whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat what is set before you, cure the sick in it and say to them, ‘The kingdom of God is at hand for you.’ Whatever town you enter and they do not receive you, go out into the streets and say, ‘The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off against you.’ Yet know this: the kingdom of God is at hand. I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom on that day than for that town.”

The seventy-two returned rejoicing, and said, “Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name.”

Jesus said, “I have observed Satan fall like lightning from the sky. Behold, I have given you the power to ‘tread upon serpents’ and scorpions and upon the full force of the enemy and nothing will harm you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven.”

Focus Questions:

1. Describe a situation when you felt “unwelcome” because of your faith.
2. Relate a time when you stood up against an injustice
3. Where do you feel called to spread the Gospel?

Family and children’s question

Looking back over your week can you see instances when God was present?

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Today's Gospel speaks of Jesus' determination to journey to Jerusalem. The Gospel of Luke narrates Jesus' ministry as a long journey from Galilee to Jerusalem, to die on the cross and rise on the third day. Jesus' determination never slackened. He was always focused on Jerusalem, death on the Cross and Resurrection. That is why He rebukes the disciples when they wanted Jesus to punish the Samaritans who did not welcome him into their village. His mission is to die for people and not to punish them.

Jesus expects the same kind of determination of will from those who would like to follow Him. Whether one wants to follow Jesus or wants to adhere to His call, one should follow Him without any strings attached. Unconditional following is expected from the disciples of Jesus.

Celebration of our Parish Feast in 'sharing the Spirit of Love'. Our parishioners participated so enthusiastically in every event. I appreciate your participation. May our patron St. Thomas More bless our families and especially our children that they may follow the spirit of our patron in choosing the truth alone and may have God's strength to live it.

I whole heartedly thank Bernie our parish business manager who coordinated all the events and became a part of the events in service and celebrative spirit.

On the eve of the feast, on Saturday evening over 100 people attended the Dinner and Dance. It was a memorable party with lots of fun and warm feelings of coming together.

After every mass on Sunday people went straight from worship to the white room for the pancake breakfast. At 1:30 Emilia Savarese, our Choir master arranged a talent show. Twenty seven performers brought their talents alive on the stage. It was an hour of awesome experience. Congratulations to the performers. Thanks to the parents and grandparents who brought the children.

Mini Carnival: The Talent show was followed by fun time for children and family, outside at the parking lot with slides, Hamburgers and Hot Dogs on the grill, Balloon twister, and contests. The weather was perfect with sun and a gentle breeze to enjoy this happy time for the Parish –Family of St. Thomas More.

Thanks to all: All these events were made possible by collaborative and enthusiastic service of many people at these events. Every week individuals and the Knights of Columbus sold raffle tickets. The Dinner-Dance was a memorable evening thanks to the efforts of Deacon Edward and Laura Vigneaux, Dotty Boyle, Letty Russo, the Knights at the bar and the finest cakes and deserts by the Kane family. The Pancake Breakfast was cooked and served by the Knights. Emilia Savarese, along with Judy Granville, Eileen Weidig and Matt Surico made the Talent Show a 'wow' experience. At the carnival Terry More, Jean Monsees, young volunteers from the youth ministry, Lou Savarese, Mr. and Mrs. Arancio along with Bernie and many others fed the hearts and stomachs with fun and food. Thanks to all of them. Their service brought our parish motto 'sharing the spirit of Love' into a living reality in these celebrations. Thanks to Frank Bayer who captured these moments with his camera. Because of him we can see photos of the events in this week's bulletin and in the following weeks.

Lucky Winners: The four lucky winners of our raffle are:

- First Prize -- $10,000 --Molly Prisinzano
- Second Prize -- $2000--Judy Coyle
- Third Prize--$1000--John & Marie Reddy
- Fourth Prize--$500--Gina & Gerard Poulin

Congratulations to all the winners. Thanks to all those who bought tickets. Though only four of us won, all the others contributed to the parish fund. Thank you and God bless your generosity.

The annual golf outing, now known as the Msgr. Francis S. Midura Memorial, will be held on July 22nd at the Smithtown Landing Country Club. Cost remains at $150 which includes golf, cart, lunch, Special Commemorative gift, buffet dinner & open bar. Raffle tickets and Reverse 50/50 tickets will be sold in the Narthex starting June 21st. Grand prize is a Smart big screen TV. Please support this important event even if you do not play golf. Our Golf committee is working hard for its success. Let's lend our support in 'sharing the spirit of Love' and in memory of our late beloved Pastor Msgr. Midura.

This week's second collection is for Peter's Pence, which provides the Holy Father with the funds he needs to carry out his most important charitable works. The proceeds benefit the most disadvantaged: victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters. Through your generosity, we can cast the peace of Christ upon the world.

JUSTICE & PEACE

We left off by saying, build a system of alternative set of loyalties. It is easy to point out what is wrong in society. It is also easy to deconstruct but not so easy to be positive and reconstruct. Jesus was never into excluding people. He was only interested in transformation and integration. What does this all mean in terms of justice and peace? In solving world problems today, we have to be careful that we do not punish or avoid those who have different opinions. This will not help in creating a new society. Lasting change can occur when there is inclusiveness and not excluding anyone. Jesus had a positive vision; rather than expel, he forgave and included people. Can we see the divine image in each human in our world? If we can then progress can be achieved and the world can be transformed. Can we understand that we are all wounded in one way or another? What is important is what we do with the wound.

*Justice is a parish affair.
Discover needs and act justly.
Together we can make a difference.*

Is there an issue you would like to raise? Call Ralph L. Molinaro at 724-2253.

Reproduced below is a letter of thanks from the CHRISTIAN APPALACHIAN PROJECT, INC., Kentucky.

“June 5, 2013

Dear Friend,

I would like to extend my deepest thanks for your generous gift of $5,000.00 to support the work of the Christian Appalachian Project. Your continued prayers and support encourage us to continue in the war against poverty. There are many problems facing the poor of Appalachia. These problems can force individuals and families to abandon hope. Yet, hope is so important because it allows for those in despair to have the opportunity of making a difference in their own lives. We continue our efforts by focusing on each situation regardless whether it's through education, employment, personal development or providing spiritual growth.

Again, thank you for your continued support of CAP programs, without you, our mission in Appalachia would not be possible. Also, please keep all of us in your daily prayers and know you will be in ours.

If you are employed, would you please check to see if your company matches the donations their employees make to charities? If so, your gift could help twice as much. Thank you.

God bless you,

Signed/-

Guy Adams

President”

Freedom of Religion

Last year Cardinal Timothy Dolan said, “We have become certain of two things: religious freedom is under attack, and we will not cease our struggle to protect it”. Already in Long Island some parishes like Ss. Philip & James in St. James, St. Patrick in Huntington, St. Bernard in Levittown have formed grass root advocacy groups such as Catholics for Freedom of Religion. Lorraine Yovino has volunteered to form a group in our parish. If you are interested to be active for the cause of Religious Freedom please contact her at 780-5206 or e-mail her at lkyovino

@verizon.net to form an ad hoc meeting. Our parish patron, St. Thomas More is the patron for religious freedom. May the spirit of St. Thomas More inspire us to serve and protect our religious freedom in sharing the spirit of love.
