A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, “Lord, teach us to pray just as John taught his disciples.” He said to them, “When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread and forgive us our sins for we ourselves forgive everyone in debt to us, and do not subject us to the final test.” And he said to them, “Suppose one of you has a friend to whom he goes at midnight and says, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, for a friend of mine has arrived at my house from a journey and I have nothing to offer him,’ and he says in reply from within, ‘Do not bother me; the door has already been locked and my children and I are already in bed. I cannot get up to give you anything.’ I tell you, if he does not get up to give the visitor the loaves because of their friendship, he will get up to give him whatever he needs because of his persistence. “And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened. What father among you would hand his son a snake when he asks for a fish? Or hand him a scorpion when he asks for an egg? If you then, who are wicked, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?”

Focus Questions:

1. Share an experience when your prayer was answered.
2. How do you react when your prayer seems to go unanswered?
3. When you reflect on the Our Father what line do you find the most comforting? What line challenges you?

Family and children’s question

The Lord’s Prayer calls us to forgive those who hurt us. Who are the people you need to forgive? What steps can you take?

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

A great religious persecution broke out in the land and the three Pillars of religion – Scripture, Worship and Charity – appeared before God to express their fear that if religion were to be stamped out they would cease to exist. “Not to worry,” said the Lord. “I plan to send One to earth who is greater than all of you.”

“What is the name of this Great One?” asked the three pillars of Religion.

“Self-Knowledge” said God. “Self-Knowledge will do greater things than any of you have done.”

This week's Gospel is the story of Martha and Mary.

Here Jesus explains about the two pillars of religion, “Scripture and Worship” in the person of Mary listening to Jesus. Last week, Jesus spoke about Charity, through the story of the Good Samaritan. In the story of Martha and Mary, the serving lady Martha is downplayed while Mary, who is listening to Jesus, is chosen by Jesus as model to be imitated. In the story of the Good Samaritan, the priest and the Levite who did not care for the man who fell victim to the robbers are downplayed by Jesus. The Samaritan who charitably served the man was set as a model to be followed.

When we put both the stories together we get the deeper message that as disciples of Jesus we have to be active like the Good Samaritan in doing charity, and at the same time we have to listen to Jesus like Mary, reading Scriptures and worshipping.

In both stories the main thrust of Jesus is not simply to do for the sake of doing, but to do everything from the inner self that listens to Jesus. Jesus teaches us to act from our inner self - knowledge that get from Scripture and Worship, from our sitting at the feet of Jesus like Mary of today's Gospel. Jesus supports Mary because she is doing what her heart tells her, that is to listen to Jesus. Whereas Martha's part is downplayed because her complaint came from her comparison with Mary's sitting comfortably at the feet of Jesus and leaving Martha alone to work. In the Good Samaritan story Jesus teaches the lawyer the same thing - to do what he clearly understood in his heart who is his the neighbor.

Both stories invite us to look at the motivation of why we do what we do. They call us to self-knowledge as to the source of our Charity, Scripture reading or Worship. Or to put the same truth in other words, all our charities, Scripture readings, praying and worship must grow in us a self-knowledge that what we do is not for the sake of doing but from a self-knowledge of what God wants us to do.

The annual golf outing, now known as the Msgr.

Francis S. Midura Memorial, will be held on Monday July 22nd at the Smithtown Landing Country Club. Cost remains at $150. If you are a golfer, please join to play golf at the Smithtown Landing Country Club. The cost is $150 for both Golf and dinner at 4:00pm at Walden Hall.

If you are not a Golfer like me, please join us for dinner with open bar at 4:00pm at Walden Hall for $50. In addition Raffle tickets for attractive prizes (like Smart big screen TV, iPod etc.) are sold at the Narthex. Raffle tickets are just $10. Please show your support.

On Saturday, July 27 at the 5:00pm mass we will celebrate the first anniversary of the death of our former beloved Pastor Msgr. Francis Midura. The memorial mass will be followed by the grand opening and dedication of the new Kitchen in his name, and wine tasting. Michelle Stollo, Msgr. Midura's niece is gracious and generous to host this event in memory of her uncle. She helped to waive the cost of the Wine Tasting; there will be no charge for the wine tasting.

Even though admission is free, since we only have limited seating in the celebration halls, please obtain a ticket from the Rectory, which will be available from Monday, July 22nd onwards. Tickets are on a first come first served basis. Please bring finger foods or hors d'oeuvres to share. Since wine will be served, only adults will be admitted to the Wine Tasting.

Young people of our Youth Ministry are hosting

Acoustic Café -once again on Saturday August 17 from 7:00 pm to 10:00 pm. From the show they hosted on Friday June 28, I can guarantee that it will be a great show of their talents through vocal and instrumental music in a beautiful blend of fine art and fun. They perform with style and stature, filling the hearts with grace and character. Please come and encourage them. It is going to be a fun filled evening.

JUSTICE & PEACE

We lift our minds and hearts in prayer as we recall the many gifts God has given us. The words of Jesus tell us of the goodness of God in our regard. We are filled with hope over that which is to come. Think of the poor all over the world. Many do not know if they will have something to eat tomorrow. We who have more thank you for your abundance. May we always remember the poor of the world and act accordingly. This is what the justice and peace committee tries to accomplish each year. It takes a lot of time and effort to do right

*Justice is a parish affair.
Discover needs and act justly.
Together we can make a difference.*

Is there an issue you would like to raise? Call Ralph L. Molinaro at 724-2253.

PARISH OUTREACH & ST. VINCENT de PAUL NEWS

Our mission: to help people incorporate St. Thomas More Parish Outreach and the St. Thomas St. Vincent de Paul Conference.

Summer vacation is upon us! It's the time when we relax, refresh, and get reacquainted with our families... however, it's also the time of year when we tend to turn inward and to our own needs. Consequently, the needs of others tend to be forgotten. Specifically, our supplies are dangerously low. We need everything! If you can spare anything from your pantry at home, or even add a couple of items to your food cart this week to drop off at Outreach, it would be so greatly appreciated!!!! We always need personal care items like deodorants and toothpaste and shampoos (and conditioner, if you can), but we also need staples such as coffee, ketchup, mustard, mayonnaise, rice, pasta, soup, flour, sugar, canned goods (soup or vegetables), cereal, crackers, tuna, mac and cheese, etc. Anything would be greatly appreciated at Outreach, from 10 – 2 Monday through Thursday, or dropped off in the bin in the lobby of St. Thomas More. Again, any fresh produce would be especially gratifying !!!!
