A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:

Jesus said to his disciples: “Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me. In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be. Where I am going you know the way.”

Thomas said to him, “Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?”

Jesus said to him, I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, then you will also know my Father. From now on you do know him and have seen him.”

Philip said to him, “Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us.”

Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you for so long a time and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I speak to you I do not speak on my own. The Father who dwells in me is doing his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else, believe because of the works themselves. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these, because I am going to the Father.”

Focus Questions:

1. “Do not let your hearts be troubled” is what Jesus says to the apostles. How have troubles have gotten in the way of putting your trust in Jesus?
2. Jesus says he is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. How do you experience Jesus as the Way or the Truth or Life in your life?
3. How does God continue to act in your life?

Family and children’s question:

Talk about a time when you placed your trust in Jesus.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

A man's car stalled in heavy traffic as the light turned green. All his efforts to start the engine failed, and a chorus of honking behind him made matters worse. He finally got out of his car, walked to the driver of the first car behind him and said, "I'm sorry, but I can't seem to get my car started. If you'll go up there and give it a try, I'll stay here and blow your horn for you."

In the Gospel today Jesus says "I am the gate for the sheep. Whoever enters through me... will find pasture". Jesus is both the destination and the way to that destination. He is not only a teacher who teaches us the way but also a companion who walks with us to the destination. Jesus is the path itself on which we can walk. Jesus shows the way and accompanies us. He becomes the way and the destination.

When we take Jesus as the way, as He promises, we will "have life and have it more abundantly." With Jesus it is not the bare minimum of life, but life in abundance. Today's Gospel invites us to check what kind of path we walk in life and whether we have life in abundance.

Happy Mother's Day to all mothers. An unknown author quoted "Mothers hold their children's hands for a short while, but their hearts forever".

Please mark your calendar for the Volunteer Appreciation Party on Friday, May 30th at 7:00 pm. It is a dinner and dance evening for all the volunteers. The dinner is free but please ensure your place with a $20 check which will be returned to you when you show up for the dinner. A cordial welcome to all our volunteers.

Thanks to Angela and Louis Pontillo and all those who are helping them to run the Military Bridge on Friday, May 16th. Thank you for your hard work and contribution to the Parish Fund.

Baptism of my grand-niece—I would like to share with you a couple of pictures of my grand-niece's baptism.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion:

In this season of graduations, the following are two Freedom of Religion and Freedom of Speech challenges and victories:

"The Creator will not hold us guiltless if we turn a deaf ear to the cries of His innocent babies...I will not bow before your wicked regulation," said Dr. James Dobson, founder of Focus on the Family and Family Talk Radio, at a National Day of Prayer event on May 1, as he brought attention to the ACA Mandate requiring employers to provide abortion inducing drugs in their insurance coverage. (WND.com; 5/2/14)

A temporary victory was achieved on April 18 when a U.S. District Judge issued an injunction preventing the federal government from imposing this mandate on Family Talk which was among more than 100 lawsuits brought by religious ministries. "The government has put religious employers to a cruel choice: 'Abandon your religious beliefs or be fined out of existence'", said lead counsel for Alliance Defending Freedom.(WND.com; 4/18/14)

In contrast to his ACA Mandate, the Presidential Proclamation - National Day of Prayer, May 1, 2014 states:

One of our Nations great strengths is the freedom we hold dear, including the freedom to exercise our faiths freely... As we give thanks for our liberties, we must never forget those around the world, including Americans, who are being held or persecuted because of their convictions... And let us carry forward our Nation's tradition of religious liberty which protects Americans rights to pray and to practice our faiths as we see fit."

Thomas Renker, General Counsel for the Diocese of Rockville Centre, will speak about the ongoing religious discrimination and censorship in our schools, churches, workplace, military and public square.

NEW WEBSITE—ST. THOMAS MORE

Did you know that St. Thomas More has a website? We've had one in various forms since 1996, but we have found that many parishioners don't always make use of it. Recently the STM Pastoral Council has been discussing social media and the Internet at length. Like most communities, we have a growing population of persons who use several types of electronic media to stay in touch with information and keep their lives organized. In order to more effectively communicate parish information, we will be making more use of Facebook and Twitter. We have also relaunched our website with a brand new design.

We even have a much easier to remember web address now: stmli.org (that stands for "St. Thomas More, Long Island").

The website can be viewed not only on your computer, but on a smartphone or tablet as well. You will be able to link to our parish Facebook page and get connected to the Facebook and Twitter accounts of our Religious Education program and our Youth Program.

We will have contributed articles and postings from several areas of the parish, including some of our ministries, and will have a calendar of events covering both regular events as well as the special ones that take place during seasons such as Lent and Advent. There will be several other features added to site in the coming weeks. For now, make sure you check out the new site by going to stmli.org and bookmark it for future use.

STEWARDSHIP AT ST THOMAS MORE

MINISTRY MATTERS AT ST THOMAS MORE

Our parish is so fortunate to have folks like this who are so dedicated to our youth – read on.....

YOUTH MINISTRY

The St. Thomas More Youth Ministry has been in existence for more than two decades, and our goal continues to provide faith-based support to our high school students after Confirmation as they travel on their journey to becoming young adults. We strive to bring fun and religion together as we tend to the social and spiritual needs of those who will be the future of our parish and of our church. We encourage participation at all levels and as we say in our mission statement, we are “A home that welcomes”. Check out our website at:

www.stthomasmoreyouth.org

Through our youth minister, our Core Team of adult volunteers, and former youth group members now in college or in careers of their own, we guide our youth through the faith-based principles they'll need to stay in a close relationship with God. We encourage regular prayer, reverence, and worship and create many opportunities for the kids to learn more about their faith. In addition, the Youth Ministry provides leadership opportunities for our students to become peer leaders, helping to minister to others, or simply to develop and participate in many of the activities we sponsor and support.

We conduct social events and fundraisers like BBQs, pancake breakfasts, Pumpkin Patch, and our semi-annual Acoustic Café. We help out with the Confirmation retreats and support Outreach with a major food drive every Thanksgiving. The students participate in Box City every year to bring awareness to homelessness and join in a weeklong Gospel Roads service retreat, the first one on Long Island being scheduled out of St. Thomas More this July. We also host an annual weekend retreat for all the students who want to participate with a key theme designed specifically for the faith needs of the students. As the parent of two former Youth Ministry members, who have moved on to college and beyond, I have stayed on as a volunteer because of the visible and measureable results that I have seen in my kids. It has been so very rewarding to see all of these young people come to us after Confirmation, perhaps uncertain about their direction or role in the church, and grow during their high school years. Their relationship with God strengthens and one can truly recognize the children of our future and the future of our children.

Feel free to join us on just about any Monday evening when we gather to have fun, learn more about God and each other, and pray as a youth community.

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT !

- You spend the first two years of your children's life teaching them to walk and talk. Then you spend the next sixteen telling them to sit down and shut up.
- Children seldom misquote you. In fact, they usually repeat word for word what you should not have said.
- A couple child proofed their home, but their children are still getting in.
