A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:

Jesus said to his disciples:

“If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows him. But you know him, because he remains with you, and will be in you. I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me, because I live and you will live. On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me. And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him.”

Focus Questions:

1. Describe a time when you experienced the Holy Spirit's presence in your life.
2. Relate a time when you felt left out, orphaned or abandoned.
3. What does it mean to you when Jesus says, if you love me you will keep my commandments?

Family and children's question:

Jesus told his followers that he would never leave them. Talk about the times when you feel Jesus is with you.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

No one becomes an astronomer from merely understanding the word "astronomy". Also, a Christian mystic used to say of the Bible, "however useful a menu, it is not good for eating". Similarly you can blow on the thermometer and get it to register higher, but you do not warm the room.

In today's Gospel Jesus says, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." Jesus is the way that leads; the truth that illumines the way; and the life that strengthens while we are led on the way with the light of truth. Jesus is neither like the sign board showing the way, nor like a role model who indicates that the way to success is to imitate him. No, Jesus the truth illumines us by accompanying us on the way. Also Jesus the life strengthens us when we walk His way in the light of His truth. Jesus shows the way, accompanies us in truth on the way and strengthens us with His life while we are walking on the way.

Second Collection this weekend is a diocesan collection for Communications.

I am back from India. The baptism of my grandniece went very well. My mom and the families of my two brothers express their gratitude to all of you for all the support and strength you show me in my ministry to our parish and wish you all well. Needless to say, I am not just tanned; I was barbecued in 104° heat.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion:

In this season of graduations, the following are two Freedom of Religion and Freedom of Speech challenges and victories:

1. A Texas HS valedictorian had his microphone cut off after mentioning "God" in his graduation speech. The HS claimed he hadn't stuck to his pre-approved speech in spite of Texas law prohibiting schools from editing valedictorian addresses. School officials apologized following a demand letter from Liberty Institute (NY Daily News, 6/11/13; liberty institute.org, 6/13)

2. In protest of his S.C. school district's new policy banning religious prayer at school events, the valedictorian ripped up his pre-approved speech and instead chose to recite the Lord's Prayer. Commenting on this valedictorian's speech, a YouTube viewer wrote: "And that, my fellow Americans, is called courage, integrity, and commitment".
The school board had made the decision to ban prayer after pressure from the ACLU and Freedom From Religion Foundation. This was in spite of the U.S. Dept. of Education's document specifically acknowledging a student's civil liberty to express faith at a school event and graduation ceremony.(The Christian Post, 6/6/13; ADF.org, 6/13)

"If we ever forget we are One Nation Under God, then we are a nation gone under." (President Ronald Reagan)

St Vincent de Paul Conference
St Thomas More SVdP Conference

What we do: The St Thomas More SVdP Conference helps relieve some of the burden put on Outreach. When the demand on Outreach goes beyond food and daily necessities, Outreach calls us. We contact the client and arrange to meet with them in their home. We help by paying bills, networking, finding jobs & temporary housing, providing clothes and necessary furniture.

What you can do: Support the conference. All of all your donations are used to help those in our community...your donations stay right here! Although we have a close relationship with Outreach and we work hand in hand, our funds are separate from Outreach and require your support.

Donations can be made as follows:

Checks: SVdP St Thomas More Conference

Cash: an envelope that says SVdP. Leave at the rectory

Become a Vincentian. The only requirement is to have a desire to help. Together, as a conference, we offer the many skills and resources that enable us to assist those in our community.

NEW WEBSITE—ST. THOMAS MORE

Did you know that St. Thomas More has a website? We've had one in various forms since 1996, but we have found that many parishioners don't always make use of it. Recently the STM Pastoral Council has been discussing social media and the Internet at length. Like most communities, we have a growing population of persons who use several types of electronic media to stay in touch with information and keep their lives organized. In order to more effectively communicate parish information, we will be making more use of Facebook and Twitter. We have also relaunched our website with a brand new design.

We even have a much easier to remember web address now: stmli.org (that stands for "St. Thomas More, Long Island").

The website can be viewed not only on your computer, but on a smartphone or tablet as well. You will be able to link to our parish Facebook page and get connected to the Facebook and Twitter accounts of our Religious Education program and our Youth Program.

We will have contributed articles and postings from several areas of the parish, including some of our ministries, and will have a calendar of events covering both regular events as well as the special ones that take place during seasons such as Lent and Advent. There will be several other features added to site in the coming weeks. For now, make sure you check out the new site by going to stmli.org and bookmark it for future use.

MINISTRY MATTERS AT ST THOMAS MORE

*This is the last of our series featuring the different Ministries that are active at STM.
Fittingly, Stewardship encompasses all the other Ministries -*

STEWARDSHIP MINISTRY SHARING OUR TIME, TALENT AND TREASURE

Stewards are caretakers of the resources we have been given. When we talk about Stewardship in our parish life, we are referring to sharing the God given gifts we have been given at our Baptism. Just as with any gift, it is usually more precious and meaningful when we use it and share it with others. At STM, we have many people sharing their time, talent and treasure in many ways whether it be formally in a ministry or in some other way in our everyday lives.

Those of us who share our time and talent in the stewardship ministry are working towards helping others recognize the gifts they have been given and encouraging them to share these gifts as best as they can in to support our parish family physically, spiritually and financially. By hosting various events like the Banner procession at Pentecost, or enrichment experiences with speakers, and even this weekly column that has been in the bulletin over the last year, it is hoped that people in the parish will become aware of the various ways they may share their God given gifts. A few weeks ago, we had a weekend dedicated to the Faith Direct program to increase awareness of the benefits of this program and how as good stewards we must be mindful of our responsibility to share our treasure as well as our other gifts.

Sometimes people just need a little “nudge” to help them recognize their gift and then actually share it with others. Those of us in the stewardship ministry actually help people discern or recognize the God given gifts they have. Sometimes we may personally invite a person to a ministry because of the gifts we see in that individual. For example, I may be sitting next to a person who is singing beautifully at mass.

Her joyful participation at mass encourages me to sing even though I do not have that gift. By hearing her use the beautiful gift of voice at the liturgy, she enhances my experience of God’s presence at mass. I may even say to her, ”I really enjoyed your singing; have you ever considered joining the choir?” She might be too humble to approach a person about joining the choir. We can help her make the right connections if she is interested. It has been personally rewarding to help bring the concept of Stewardship to the people of St Thomas More. We are always amazed at the depth of commitment and generosity we see time and again in people who share their gifts in Ministry at STM. We have been co-leaders for many years and have never tired of the challenge to bring people to an awareness of their inherent gifts bestowed by God. Finally, Stewardship is a Way of Life! Here at STM, we are blessed with many generous people who share their time, talent and treasure. The question is “Can I take one step more”?
