A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew:

When Jesus heard of the death of John the Baptist, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. The crowds heard of this and followed him on foot from their towns.

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick.

When it was evening, the disciples approached him and said,

“This is a deserted place and it is already late; dismiss the crowds so that they can go to the villages and buy food for themselves.”

Jesus said to them, “There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves.”

But they said to him,

“Five loaves and two fish are all we have here.”

Then he said, “Bring them here to me,” and he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass.

Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds.

They all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the fragments left over—twelve wicker baskets full. Those who ate were about five thousand men, not counting women and children.

Focus Questions:

1. Jesus says, “Give them something to eat yourselves”. Describe a time when you did just that.

2. Recall a time when you felt mournful, threatened or afraid, but you still responded to the needs of others.

3. Relate a time when you felt spiritually hungry. What helped fill that hunger?

Family and children's question

This week be on the look out for those who need attention and try to respond to their need as Jesus did. At the end of the week talk about how you did.

PRAY FOR THE DECEASED

Our deceased loved ones and our deceased servicemen and women.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Two men from New York went fishing up in Canada. They caught only one fish. When they got back home, one of them said, "I figured out that this fish cost us $400."

"Well," said the other one, "at that price it's a good thing we did not catch more than one!"
Everything in life has its own price. If so, what is the price of LIFE itself?

Jesus continues his parables in this week's Gospel. He says we are our price of our life. Unless we invest our whole selves in life we cannot get Life in its full. Life is like the treasure, which in order to own, we should be ready to sell all our possessions. Life is like the precious pearl, which in order to have, demands our whole selves without any reservation. We get Life to the extent we invest in it.

Life is exposed to all its potency like the dragnet. It has the capacity to cherish anything like the dragnet that brings in all kinds of haul, both good and useless. It is up to us, like the fishermen, to separate and settle for the positive and Godly realities of life. Everything we experience is not life. That which uplifts us to Godly level is life. Let us pray that God bless us with wisdom to choose and live the God-given life. Let us invest our whole selves in order to own it and live it.

Thanks a million to our Golf Committee.

They did an excellent job. They served with the Spirit of our Parish, "Sharing the Spirit of Love." We were blessed with good weather too. It was both a community-building experience and a fundraising event to support the parish. While I whole heartedly thank each and every member of the committee for so generously giving of their time and talent, I also extend my gratefulness and appreciation to all the golfers and to all the parishioners who participated in raffles and various other supportive events. God bless the committee members and our parish.

the Outreach Office. You must be able to answer phones, dispense food (that is already packaged), do an intake of new clients, be pleasant and understanding, keep accurate records and do filing. You will also be required to do Virtus training

And did you hear?????

When fish are in schools, they sometimes take debate...

St Vincent de Paul Conference St Thomas More SVdP Conference

What we do: The St Thomas More SVdP Conference helps relieve some of the burden put on Outreach. When the demand on Outreach goes beyond food and daily necessities, Outreach calls us. We contact the client and arrange to meet with them in their home. We help by paying bills, networking, finding jobs & temporary housing, providing clothes and necessary furniture.

What you can do: Support the conference. All of all your donations are used to help those in our community ... your donations stay right here! Although we have a close relationship with Outreach and we work hand in hand, our funds are separate from Outreach and require your support.

Donations can be made as follows:

Checks: SVdP St. Thomas More Conference

Cash: an envelope that says SVdP. Leave at the rectory.

Become a Vincentian. The only requirement is to have a desire to help. Together, as a conference, we offer the many skills and resources that enable to assist those in our community.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion:

To preserve religious freedom we must understand it. Freedom of Religion, the gift of God to each man, is guaranteed to Americans by the 1st Amendment and the Religious Freedom Restoration Act. Freedom of religion insures that our beliefs and morals can guide our private and our public lives. We are not limited by a mere "Freedom of Worship" which would confine faith within the walls of our churches. !

Denials of freedom of religion include:

1. The HHS mandate imposing insurance coverage of contraceptives, abortion inducing drugs and elective sterilizations
2. Designation of the Little Sisters of the Poor as not religious enough be exempt from the HHS mandate
3. Justice Kennedy's assertion that anyone opposed to "same sex marriage" must be a bigot !

Our culture which praises and enables actions once unthinkable is quickly translating new supposed "rights" into laws which deny freedom of conscience and freedom of religion.

NEW WEBSITE—ST. THOMAS MORE

Did you know that St. Thomas More has a website? We've had one in various forms since 1996, but we have found that many parishioners don't always make use of it. Recently the STM Pastoral Council has been discussing social media and the Internet at length. Like most communities, we have a growing population of persons who use several types of electronic media to stay in touch with information and keep their lives organized. In order to more effectively communicate parish information, we will be making more use of Facebook and Twitter. We have also relaunched our website with a brand new design.

We even have a much easier to remember web address now: stmli.org (that stands for "St. Thomas More, Long Island").

The website can be viewed not only on your computer, but on a smartphone or tablet as well. You will be able to link to our parish Facebook page and get connected to the Facebook and Twitter accounts of our Religious Education program and our Youth Program.

We will have contributed articles and postings from several areas of the parish, including some of our ministries, and will have a calendar of events covering both regular events as well as the special ones that take place during seasons such as Lent and Advent. There will be several other features added to site in the coming weeks. For now, make sure you check out the new site by going to stmli.org and bookmark it for future use.
