Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

January 25, 2015
Third Sunday In Ordinary Time
Jonah 3:1-5, 10
Psalm 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9
1 Corinthians 7:29-31
Mark 1:14-20

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark:

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God:

“This is the time of fulfillment.

The kingdom of God is at hand.

Repent, and believe in the gospel.”

As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen. Jesus said to them,

“Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.”

Then they abandoned their nets and followed him. He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him.

Focus Questions:

1. Describe a time when you had to leave something behind to be a better follower of Jesus.
2. Name a time when you had a change of heart..
3. Describe a time when you acted without spending a lot of time thinking before making an important decision. .How did that work out for you?

Family and children’s question

How do you help bring others to Jesus?

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Husband: Why do you weep and snuffle over a TV program and the imaginary woes of people you have never met?

Wife: For the same reason you scream and yell when a man you don't know makes a touchdown.

We are affected only by that of which we are conscious.

In the first reading, God was calling Samuel but he was consciously unaware of God's voice. He needed to be helped by Eli to recognize and hear God's voice.

In the Gospel, the first disciples wanted to know more of Jesus. Jesus invites them to 'come and see' him for themselves. Unless we open ourselves to God, God will always remain an abstract reality or unproven truth of endless discussion. Today's readings invite us to be conscious of and allow ourselves to grow in God-reality. God is to be experienced as a person, to be loved, to be seen, to be touched, to be lived with.... that is the reason Jesus invites his disciples to 'come and see'; to be with him and to experience him.

In Catholic tradition, our worship is not merely hearing the word of God but also celebrating his presence in the sacrament of the Eucharist which is to eat his body and drink his blood. Our worship is not only to hear his message but to take part in his flesh and blood. Worship is not merely hearing God's thoughts and ideas in the Bible readings but becoming one with him by eating his body and blood in the Eucharist.

The terroristic attacks in Paris have brought the world together in Paris vowing not to give up human freedom in the face of fear and insecurity. Paris also experiences world-wide support to fight against terrorism and fanaticism. In Paris the human community proclaims with a loud voice to stand for peace and prosperity of life. In the light of the tragedy in Paris, today's second reading tells us not to reduce God into rigid and fanatic religious practices, but to experience God in respecting humans as Temples of the Holy Spirit.

We are created after God's image and bear it within us. Each of us reflects and reveals God's presence in ourselves. Loving the other and helping the other to live well is the best worship one can render to God. Anything against any human person is certainly against God. As John the Apostle says, "If anyone says 'I love God', but hates his brother, he is a liar; for whoever does not love a brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen." (1John4:20)

New Year Resolutions: are they going good so far? As we plan and resolve to make the best of the New Year in various ways, I would like to suggest how you can make our parish fiscally stable.

Online Giving: A growing number of people no longer write checks for recurring bills and charitable donations. Many St. Thomas More parishioners have scheduled automatic weekly, monthly, quarterly or annual donations to the parish directly from their bank account or credit/debit card. It is easy to do and we can help set it up for you. Please call the rectory about giving by 'Faith Direct'.

Stock: Each Year St. Thomas More receives stock gifts from a few families. This way of giving typically saves the most in income taxes. Transferring stock is usually done electronically and is easy to do. Please contact us if you would like to remember the parish by way of stock-donations.

2014 Contribution Statements: Soon after the New Year we will complete data entries of 2014 into our system. If you want a record of your 2014 contributions for tax purposes, please complete and return the cut-out in the bulletin to the Church Office. We will begin mailing them out towards the end of January.

PARISH OUTREACH & ST. VINCENT de PAUL NEWS

Our mission: to help people incorporate St. Thomas More Parish Outreach and the St. Thomas St. Vincent de Paul Conference.

Senior Advocates...

There is a service available to Senior Citizens in Suffolk County called Senior Advocates.. They will educate Seniors on benefits they may be Eligible for and assist them in applying for those benefits. Of particular interest may be the Supplemental Nutritional Assistance program (formerly food stamps), Medicare Savings Program, and HEAP. Advocates can also provide information on Medicare including the preventive care services now available under the Affordable Care Act. Please call 631-853- 8255 with any questions or concerns you might have.

It's Party Time again at St. Patrick's Church in Smithtown...this time, for the Baby Boomers who are single, divorced, separated or widowed. Every third Sunday, there is a "Fellowship Hour" from 10:00 – 11:30 where singles meet, converse, have refreshments, and perhaps plan activities. There is a nominal fee ...and for more information please call the Outreach Department at 631-265-2668 (from 10-2 weekdays).

St Vincent de Paul Conference St Thomas More SVdP Conference

What we do: The St Thomas More SVdP Conference helps relieve some of the burden put on Outreach. When the demand on Outreach goes beyond food and daily necessities, Outreach calls us. We contact the client and arrange to meet with them in their home. We help by paying bills, networking, finding jobs & temporary housing, providing clothes and necessary furniture.

What you can do: Support the conference. All of all your donations are used to help those in our community ... your donations stay right here! Although we have a close relationship with Outreach and we work hand in hand, our funds are separate from Outreach and require your support.

Donations can be made as follows:

Checks: SVdP St. Thomas More Conference

Cash: an envelope that says SVdP. Leave at the rectory.

Become a Vincentian. The only requirement is to have a desire to help. Together, as a conference, we offer the many skills and resources that enable to assist those in our community.

For more information, please call 234-3249.

We recently received a request that we could not meet, but maybe you can:

two people are looking to rent---one a room and the other an apartment.

If you can help, call Sylvia (a member of our St. Vincent de Paul Conference) at 631-236-5001. Thank you.

St. Valentine's Family Dinner Dance—February 14 at 6pm in Walden Hall. All family members welcome. Please see the enclosed flyer for additional details. There will be a DJ for your dancing pleasure and photo opportunities will be available.

Tickets will be on sale in the Narthex after each Mass starting January 10th until February 8th.

Tickets will not be sold at the door or Feb. 14th.

We are looking forward to seeing all of you and being able to wish you A Happy Valentine's Day in person. If you have any questions please call Jo Garvey 265-2753 or Ann Russo 543-2740.

NEW WEBSITE—ST. THOMAS MORE

Did you know that St. Thomas More has a website? We've had one in various forms since 1996, but we have found that many parishioners don't always make use of it. Recently the STM Pastoral Council has been discussing social media and the Internet at length. Like most communities, we have a growing population of persons who use several types of electronic media to stay in touch with information and keep their lives organized. In order to more effectively communicate parish information, we will be making more use of Facebook and Twitter. We have also re-launched our website with a brand new design.

We even have a much easier to remember web address now: stmli.org (that stands for "St. Thomas More, Long Island").

The website can be viewed not only on your computer, but on a smartphone or tablet as well. You will be able to link to our parish Facebook page and get connected to the Facebook and Twitter accounts of our Religious Education program and our Youth Program.

We will have contributed articles and postings from several areas of the parish, including some of our ministries, and will have a calendar of events covering both regular events as well as the special ones that take place during seasons such as Lent and Advent. There will be several other features added to site in the coming weeks. For now, make sure you check out the new site by going to stmli.org and bookmark it for future use.

"Catholics for Freedom of Religion"

National Religious Freedom Day commemorates the Virginia General Assembly's adoption of Thomas Jefferson's landmark "Virginia Statute for Religious Freedom" on Jan.16, 1786. That Statute became the basis for the U.S. Constitution's First Amendment and led to freedom of religion for all Americans. (www.wikipedia.org)

Thomas Jefferson, Founding Father and Third President of the U.S., valued this Statute so much that he ordered the epitaph on his tombstone to say, "Here is buried Thomas Jefferson, Author of the Declaration of Independence, of the Statute of Virginia for Religious Freedom, and Father of the University of Virginia. (www.faithandaction.org)

"Catholics For Freedom of Religion" remembers National Religious Freedom Day, celebrated on Jan.16, 2015 with a Proclamation from Pres. Obama, and with "Free to Speak" guidelines for students and teachers continued:

5. You may be able to go off campus to have religious studies during school hours.
 6. You can express your faith at a school event.
 7. You can express your faith at your graduation ceremony.
- (For the complete document explaining students' religious liberties, visit www.Ed.Gov)

As Catholic bishops and American citizens, we address an urgent summons to our fellow Catholics and Americans to be on guard, for religious liberty is under attack, both at home and abroad. (www.usccb.org, Our First, Most Cherished Liberty)

CIRCLE OF WOMEN

It is the mission of the Circle of Women Book Group to focus on the spiritual influence of contemporary writing that facilitates our own reflections of God's action in our daily lives.

We meet on the second Monday of the month at 2:30pm in Walden Hall. For further information and/or to register, call Marilyn at 234-5805 or Joan at 234-1739.

The next meeting will be on:
