Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

April 19, 2015

Third Sunday of Easter

Acts of the Apostles 3:13-15, 17-19

Psalm 4:2, 4, 7-8, 9

1 John: 2: 1-5

Luke 24:35-48

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.” But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost. Then he said to them, “Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have.” And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, “Have you anything here to eat?” They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them.

He said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled.” Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, “Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.”

Focus Questions:

1. The Gospel today begins with the line about the disciples recognizing Jesus in the breaking of the bread. Describe a time when you felt the presence of Jesus in the Eucharist in a deep way.
2. Describe a time when you were startled by God.
3. Touch is an important part of what Jesus did during his life-time. After the Resurrection Jesus invited his disciples to touch him. When have you been touched by Jesus? When have you touched Jesus?

Family and children’s question:

Jesus wanted his followers to spread the Good News of God’s love. How do you let others know that God loves them?

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Teenager to Millionaire: “What is the first secret of your success?”

Millionaire: “Hard Work”

Teenager: “What’s the second one?”

When we don’t focus on the first and the most important, we will try to seek success by secondary options, only to get disappointed and frustrated with life.

The Readings of the Second week of Easter invite us to focus on the first and important facet– FAITH. The story of doubting Thomas tells us how Jesus turns Thomas from external proof to internal faith. Proofs will only take us as far as to whether or not the other person fits our expectations about him/her. Only faith in the person will allow us to experience who he/she that person is.

The Apostle Thomas relied on the mark of nails in Jesus’s hands as proof to confirm the Jesus he knew. But when Jesus appeared to him, he invited Thomas to have a personal experience of him by believing in him. Faith is the first and important thing to experience the worth of the other person. No other thing but faith will prove the other person’s worth. Human beings are persons of love and relationships and not objects to be proved and evaluated by our convenient standards, like money, power, authority, popularity or glamour. The story of doubting Thomas promises that “Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.”

First Holy Communion of our young men and women will be celebrated on Saturday, April 25th and on May 2nd at the 5:00pm Mass, and on Sunday, April 26th and May 3rd at the 12:15pm Mass. We appreciate everyone’s understanding if their usual seat is not available at those Masses.

Please mark your calendar for the volunteer appreciation party on Friday May 1st at 6:30 pm. It is a dinner and dance evening for all our volunteers. The dinner is free; but please ensure your place by a deposit of a check for $20 which will be returned to you when you show up for the dinner. Since our volunteers number over 325 and our banquet hall has only limited space, I am obliged to limit the invitation to volunteers only. Please understand. Welcome to all volunteers for the appreciation party.

PARISH OUTREACH

More Easter Thoughts!!!!

We proclaimed a general “thank you” last time to those who had donated for Easter...but now it’s time to get specific! To begin with, we must thank, once again, the Prunty family, who donated twenty (20) hams to the cause (hooray!!!); Dolores Schroeder's Religion class who made up twelve (12) Easter baskets (hooray!!!), Evelyn Mentock who donated Easter baskets on behalf of the St. Thomas More Columbiettes (hooray!!!) and also Maria Torquata's 6th grade class who donated $47.56 of their hard-earned money to Outreach (hooray!!!). On a more pragmatic level, all those singles out there who may be divorced, widowed or uncommitted and who are over 45 – 60+, are invited to the St. Patrick's Singles Fellowship that meets once a month on the third Sunday, from 10:00 – 11:30. You may expect to meet and greet, eat, and plan events. You may also meet people who will become your friends! Meetings are held in the building behind the Church in Smithtown. Call 631-265-2668 for details.

St Vincent de Paul Conference

What we do: The St Thomas More SVdP Conference helps relieve some of the burden put on Outreach. When the demand on Outreach goes beyond food and daily necessities, Outreach calls us. We contact the neighbor in need and arrange to meet with them in their home. We help by paying bills, networking, finding jobs & temporary housing, providing clothes and necessary furniture.

What we have been doing: We have been busy assisting our neighbors who are behind in their rent; helping with car insurance payments so people could continue to work; providing furniture and clothing vouchers, and heating assistance for others. Yes, we have been busy and helpful because of your generosity. Please check our Lenten Project bulletin board in the narthex.

What you can do: Support the conference. All of your donations are used to help those in our community ... your donations stay right here!

Although we have a close relationship with Outreach and we work hand in hand, our funds are separate from Outreach and require your support.

Donations can be made as follows:

Checks: SVdP St. Thomas More Conference

Cash: an envelope that says SVdP. Leave at the rectory.

Become a Vincentian. The only requirement is to have a desire to help. Together, as a conference, we offer the many skills and resources that enable to assist those in our community.

For more information, please call 234-3249. You can also contact the Parish SVdP Conference by emailing them at SVdPSTM@aol.com and you can follow them by liking them on FACEBOOK at "SVdP Conference of St. Thomas More".

NEW WEBSITE—ST. THOMAS MORE

Did you know that St. Thomas More has a website? We've had one in various forms since 1996, but we have found that many parishioners don't always make use of it. Recently the STM Pastoral Council has been discussing social media and the Internet at length. Like most communities, we have a growing population of persons who use several types of electronic media to stay in touch with information and keep their lives organized. In order to more effectively communicate parish information, we will be making more use of Facebook and Twitter. We have also re-launched our website with a brand new design.

We even have a much easier to remember web address now: stmli.org (that stands for "St. Thomas More, Long Island").

The website can be viewed not only on your computer, but on a smartphone or tablet as well. You will be able to link to our parish Facebook page and get connected to the Facebook and Twitter accounts of our Religious Education program and our Youth Program.

We will have contributed articles and postings from several areas of the parish, including some of our ministries, and will have a calendar of events covering both regular events as well as the special ones that take place during seasons such as Lent and Advent. There will be several other features added to site in the coming weeks. For now, make sure you check out the new site by going to stmli.org and bookmark it for future use.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

I am the way, the truth and the life'(John 14:6)

You will know the truth and the truth will make you free'(John 8:32)

Religious Freedom Restoration Act (RFRA): Fact vs. Fiction

This past week, journalist abuse has exploded into controversy over an innocuous religious freedom law in Indiana. The federal RFRA was signed into law by Pres. Clinton in 1993 and 20 states have substantially the same law. (the federalist.com, 3/30/15)

Don't be fooled. The RFRA does NOT legalize discrimination. Anyone that says that is misinformed or worse. RFRA merely allows business owners to refuse to perform their services if doing so is a violation of their faith. (catholic vote.org, 4/2/15)

Under the various RFRAs, a state or the federal government may not substantially burden an individual's exercise of religion unless the burden is in furtherance of a compelling government interest and is the least restrictive means of furthering that interest. If the government's interest is not important enough - literally compelling - it cannot outweigh an individual's right to practice his religion as he sees fit.

RFRA is a shield, not a sword. It can be used to defend oneself against lawsuits or administrative action. It can't be used to try and deprive others of the protections of law. Despite there being no evidence for discrimination under this law, journalists will simply repeat this fiction as if it were true, and hope that incurious, unsuspecting people will assume it. (the federalist.com, 3/30/15)

The Gospel of Jesus Christ is for people who want to be free, free 'ln the truest sense. And its message is meant for all of us - unless we choose to be afraid.' Archbishop Charles Chaput
