Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

May 17, 2015
Seventh Sunday of Easter
Acts of the Apostles 1:15-17, 20a, 20c-26
Psalm 103:1-2, 11-12, 19-20
1 John: 4:11-16
John 17:11b-19

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:

Lifting up his eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed saying:

“Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one just as we are one.

When I was with them I protected them in your name that you gave me, and I guarded them, and none of them was lost except the son of destruction, in order that the Scripture might be fulfilled.

But now I am coming to you. I speak this in the world so that they may share my joy completely. I gave them your word, and the world hated them, because they do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world. I do not ask that you take them out of the world but that you keep them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world.

Consecrate them in the truth. Your word is truth.

As you sent me into the world, so I sent them into the world. And I consecrate myself for them, so that they also may be consecrated in truth.”

Focus Questions:

1. Relate a time when you felt sent by God.
2. When do you experience joy?
3. What are some of the faith values that you can show to the world?

Family and children's question:

How do you show Christ's joy by treating others with kindness?

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Mom: What does your girlfriend like in you?

Son: She thinks I'm handsome, talented, clever and a good dancer.

Mom: And what do you like in her?

Son: That she thinks I'm handsome, talented, clever and a good dancer.

This week's Gospel reading asks us the question:

"Why do we love someone?" "What urges us to love someone?" As an answer, Jesus defines his love for us. "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends."

Love towards the other is not a product of things or talents that the other has. It is not that something in the other attracts one to love that person. Love is not love when one falls in love with the other because of what the other has or is.

Love is a natural flow of life from oneself to the other. We are born to love. We are called to love others because loving is the only way of living. No love, no life. The highest and the fullest way of living is loving the other to the extent of laying down one's life for the other. Any act done without love is a dead act. Any simple act done with love is a life giving act. That is why Mother Theresa used to say 'God did not call us to do great acts but simple acts with lots of love'.

Another captivating line of today's Gospel is "I no longer call you slaves.... I have called you friends." Jesus' way of living is loving. In loving there can't be any discrimination. There is only treatment of the other as one's own... no slaves but only friends. Let us pray for the gift of love. Let us ask Jesus to give us the wisdom and strength to love one another as ourselves.

PARISH OUTREACH

It's Mother's Day!!!!

If you have/had a mother, are a mother, or know a mother, please take the time to reflect on the importance of this holiday!!!

If you are feeling the urge to donate food (and who doesn't feel that urge with the renewal of the Earth, and Springtime?), please consider the following items; MEAT (chopped meat, hamburgers, and chicken outlets) and buns to go with the hamburgers and hot dogs, and cereals (any type). Thank you so much.

St Vincent de Paul Conference

What we do: The St Thomas More SVdP Conference helps relieve some of the burden put on Outreach. When the demand on Outreach goes beyond food and daily necessities, Outreach calls us. We contact the neighbor in need and arrange to meet with them in their home. We help by paying bills, networking, finding jobs & temporary housing, providing clothes and necessary furniture.

What we have been doing: Lent and the Easter season have been a busy time for our conference. Yes, we have been answering calls, making home visits, welcoming new members into our conference AND entering the world of technology.

1) We have a new telephone number 648-2760. Please feel free to use it yourselves, or give it to a neighbor who may need help.

2) We have established an email address for our conference: svdp.stm@aol.com

3) We also have our very own Facebook Page: SVdP Conference of St. Thomas More *****

If we get 500 "Likes" on our Facebook Page by June 30, an anonymous person will donate $500 to our conference. Please help us reach that goal— it's just a "Like" away at SVdP Conference of St. Thomas More. Thank you all for your support.

What YOU have done: A hearty, grateful thank you to all those who donated to our conference in The Lenten Project. Your generosity amounted to $9,000 which will enable your conference to continue walking "In The Footsteps of Jesus." We are grateful to our Pastor, Father Antony, for giving us this opportunity.

Donations can be made as follows:

Checks: SVdP St. Thomas More Conference

Cash: an envelope that says SVdP. Leave at the rectory.

Become a Vincentian. The only requirement is to have a desire to help. Together, as a conference, we offer the many skills and resources that enable to assist those in our community.

NEW WEBSITE—ST. THOMAS MORE

Did you know that St. Thomas More has a website? We've had one in various forms since 1996, but we have found that many parishioners don't always make use of it. Recently the STM Pastoral Council has been discussing social media and the Internet at length. Like most communities, we have a growing population of persons who use several types of electronic media to stay in touch with information and keep their lives organized. In order to more effectively communicate parish information, we will be making more use of Facebook and Twitter. We have also re-launched our website with a brand new design.

We even have a much easier to remember web address now: stmli.org (that stands for "St. Thomas More, Long Island").

The website can be viewed not only on your computer, but on a smartphone or tablet as well. You will be able to link to our parish Facebook page and get connected to the Facebook and Twitter accounts of our Religious Education program and our Youth Program.

We will have contributed articles and postings from several areas of the parish, including some of our ministries, and will have a calendar of events covering both regular events as well as the special ones that take place during seasons such as Lent and Advent. There will be several other features added to site in the coming weeks. For now, make sure you check out the new site by going to stmli.org and bookmark it for future use.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

"Those who deny religious freedom seek to end the influence of faith and morals in our society. As Catholics our actions must make it clear, we will not surrender our religious liberty."

Bishop William Murphy, Diocese of Rockville Centre, NY

Supreme Court:

The U.S. Supreme Court heard arguments April 28 on the question of same-sex marriage. At the heart of the issue is whether the court will recognize a right to same-sex marriage that conflicts with the Constitution's protections for speech and religious freedoms.

In practice, the rights of homosexuals are trumping religious rights as courts or commissions penalize Christians for doing no more than living by their faith. (www.wnd.com, 4/2015; www.nytimes.com, 4/2015)

Christian florist targeted for "personal ruin":

Washington State florist and grandmother, Barronelle Stutzman, employs gay people and serves gay clients. But when long-time customers asked her to create floral pieces for their same-sex wedding, she refused because she could not defy her conscience and lend her creative talent to help celebrate what her faith says she cannot celebrate.

A superior court judge has ruled against her saying the First Amendment protects her religious beliefs but not actions based on those beliefs.

As a result, Stutzman could lose her business, home, and personal savings.

"The message of these rulings is unmistakable: The government will bring about your personal and professional ruin if you don't help celebrate same-sex marriage," said Alliance Defending Freedom senior counsel.

(www.cnn.com, 2/20/15; www.adf.org, 2/2015)

We are witnessing a shift in our society -- a shift which inevitably leads to Christians being treated as pariahs at every level of our national life. Louie Giglio's Christian views on marriage got him removed from the President's inauguration. Brendan Eich's support for traditional marriage got him dismissed as CEO of Mozilla. Kelvin Cochran's Christian faith got him fired from his position as fire chief of Atlanta. Two bakers in Oregon had to shutter their business and are now facing bankruptcy for refusing to participate in a gay wedding. The stories are mounting. Who will be next?

(www.cnn.com, 2/20/15)

"The saving message of the Gospel of Jesus Christ includes the teachings of His church on the profound and inherent dignity of the human person and the nature of marriage as a conjugal bond - a one-flesh union." Prof. Robert P. George, Princeton Univ.
