Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

May 31, 2015
The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity
Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40
Psalm 33: 4-5, 6, 9, 18-19, 20, 22
Romans 8:14-17
Matthew 28:16-20

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew:

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they all saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

Focus Questions:

1. Describe how your view of God has changed during your lifetime. What helped you to grow in your understanding of God?
2. Where do you feel Jesus is calling you today? To whom do you think he wants you to go?
3. Relate a time when you felt faith and doubt at the same time.

Family and children's question:

The first prayer to the Trinity that we learned as little children was the sign of the cross. This week make a special effort to make the sign of the cross in the morning and at night.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

How does the rainbow happen? Rainbows happen when sunlight penetrates the rain drop in a very specific way. When a beam of sunlight comes down to Earth, the light is colorless. The beams of sunlight separate into the colors in the rainbow as they enter a raindrop.

Do you know the Church is the Rainbow of God? This Sunday is Pentecost Sunday. The Greek word 'Pentecost' means 'Fifty'. This Sunday is the fiftieth day of Easter Sunday. On this fiftieth (Pentecost) day the disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit. As today's second reading explains, 'we are all baptized in one SPIRIT and we, each one of us, has received different kinds of gifts from the same SPIRIT.' God sends the Holy Spirit who is like the light penetrating us, the rain drops. As the light separate into colors, so the Holy Spirit, the power of God fills us with various gifts. The Church becomes the rainbow of various gifts of the One SPIRIT sent by God.

During the night we see nothing but pitch darkness because there is no light. We need light to see and cherish the colors of the world. It is light that brings the colors into life. Likewise the church is filled with many ministries but without the HOLY SPIRIT they stand lifeless and meaningless.

For the last nine days we prayed to God the Father that the Holy Spirit might come upon us as Jesus has promised us to be the church of God as body of Christ in the power and guidance of Holy Spirit. Now the Holy Spirit is upon us. Let us lead a life of the Spirit. Let us realize that the power of the Spirit can make us stronger persons to fulfill all that God has planned to achieve in us.

PARISH OUTREACH

Food Donations

Last week, we mentioned possibly donating MEAT to our food pantry; and if you think about it, MEAT is such an interesting word. You can take the word MEAT and transpose the letters and get TAME. Or you can go further and get TEAM Or you can continue and get MATE. Or you can spell ATEM, which would be incorrect.

Any way you spell it though, it still spells the need for MEAT.

Thank you.

Our language is very interesting, to say the least. There are words known as “contronyms” which can have opposite meanings, depending on the context of the sentence. For example, “To dust” can mean to lay down particles (as in dusting for fingerprints) or to remove particles (as when you dust the furniture). Consider the word “FAST”. It can mean moving quickly, as in “running fast”, or it can mean not moving as in “stuck fast.” But it can also mean “to abstain from food”; and that is a meaning which concerns us. To voluntarily fast can be a religious experience...but if it is NOT voluntary, as can happen if there is no food, then it is a traumatizing experience. Our clients have those sorts of experiences...and it is the reason why we are in existence. Please help our program, so that our clients don't HAVE to “FAST”.

St Vincent de Paul Conference

What we do: The St Thomas More SVdP Conference helps relieve some of the burden put on Outreach. When the demand on Outreach goes beyond food and daily necessities, Outreach calls us. We contact the neighbor in need and arrange to meet with them in their home. We help by paying bills, networking, finding jobs & temporary housing, providing clothes and necessary furniture.

What we have been doing: Lent and the Easter season have been a busy time for our conference. Yes, we have been answering calls, making home visits, welcoming new members into our conference AND entering the world of technology.

1) We have a new telephone number 648-2760. Please feel free to use it yourselves, or give it to a neighbor who may need help.

2) We have established an email address for our conference: svdp.stm@aol.com

3) We also have our very own Facebook Page: SVdP Conference of St. Thomas More *****

If we get 500 “Likes” on our Facebook Page by June 30, an anonymous person will donate $500 to our conference. Please help us reach that goal— it’s just a “Like” away at SVdP Conference of St. Thomas More. Thank you all for your support.

What YOU have done: A hearty, grateful thank you to all those who donated to our conference in The Lenten Project. Your generosity amounted to $9,000 which will enable your conference to continue walking “In The Footsteps of Jesus.” We are grateful to our Pastor, Father Antony, for giving us this opportunity.

Donations can be made as follows:

Checks: SVdP St. Thomas More Conference

Cash: an envelope that says SVdP. Leave at the rectory.

Become a Vincentian. The only requirement is to have a desire to help. Together, as a conference, we offer the many skills and resources that enable to assist those in our community.

NEW WEBSITE—ST. THOMAS MORE

Did you know that St. Thomas More has a website? We've had one in various forms since 1996, but we have found that many parishioners don't always make use of it. Recently the STM Pastoral Council has been discussing social media and the Internet at length. Like most communities, we have a growing population of persons who use several types of electronic media to stay in touch with information and keep their lives organized. In order to more effectively communicate parish information, we will be making more use of Facebook and Twitter. We have also re-launched our website with a brand new design.

We even have a much easier to remember web address now: stmli.org (that stands for "St. Thomas More, Long Island").

The website can be viewed not only on your computer, but on a smartphone or tablet as well. You will be able to link to our parish Facebook page and get connected to the Facebook and Twitter accounts of our Religious Education program and our Youth Program.

We will have contributed articles and postings from several areas of the parish, including some of our ministries, and will have a calendar of events covering both regular events as well as the special ones that take place during seasons such as Lent and Advent. There will be several other features added to site in the coming weeks. For now, make sure you check out the new site by going to stmli.org and bookmark it for future use.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

Bishop William Murphy has called for the Diocese of Rockville Centre, NY, to "become a burning furnace of prayer for peace."

Genocide Warning: Nearly 3 years after Christian Solidarity International first issued a genocide warning for the Islamic Middle East and called on our leaders to act, religious minorities in Iraq are facing imminent annihilation... The UN High Commissioner for Human Rights has warned that the Islamic State is "systematically targeting men, women and children based on their ethnic, religious, or sectarian affiliation, and are ruthlessly carrying out widespread ethnic and religious cleansing in the areas under their control." (csi-usa.org/genocide warning)

Nun Initially Denied U.S. visa: An Iraqi Dominican nun, known for her advocacy of religious minorities in the Middle East, was initially prevented from telling Congress her story about terror and persecution under the Islamic State when her visa application to join a delegation to U.S. was denied by the State Department. (washingtontimes.com, 4/30/15)

Under pressure from religious freedom advocates, the State Department reversed their controversial decision and Sr. Momeka finally addressed Congress on May 13. She reported that Iraqi Christians are "on the edge of terrible catastrophe." "ISIS' goal is Christian genocide. "The only Christians that remain in the Plain of Ninevah are those who are held as hostages. In the midst of this darkness, this suffering, we see that God is holding us. Stand with us as we, as Christians, have stood with all the people of the world and help us". (catholicnewsagency.com, 5/13/15)

"I am issuing a call to peace as Bishop of this Diocese, an urgent invitation to one and all, without exception, to accept the responsibility and to commit ourselves to daily prayer for peace." Bishop William Murphy, Bishop of Rockville Centre, NY
