Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

January 17, 2016
Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Isaiah 62: 1-5
Psalm 96: 1-2, 2-3, 7-8, 9-10
1 Corinthians 12:4-11
John 2: 1-11

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him,

“They have no wine.”

And Jesus said to her,

“Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come.”

His mother said to the servers,

“Do whatever he tells you.”

Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons.

Jesus told them,

“Fill the jars with water.”

So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, “Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter.”

So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from — although the servers who had drawn the water knew —, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, “Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now.”

Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

Focus Questions:

1. Where have you experienced not having enough? What did you do?

2. Describe a recent “ordinary” event that ended up having extraordinary meaning for you.

3. Recall a time when you interfered in a situation and it turned out well.

Family and children’s question:

Talk about a time when you helped someone as Mary tried to help the young couple at their wedding feast.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

A mother was deeply hurt by the behavior of her fifteen year old son. Each time they went out together he would walk ahead of her. One day she asked him. "Are you ashamed of walking with me?"

"Oh, Mom, no" was his embarrassed reply. "It's just that you look so young that I'm worried my friends will suspect I have a new girlfriend." Her hurt vanished as if by magic when the son revealed her youth and beauty to mom.

Today's Solemn Feast of the Baptism of the Lord reveals who Jesus is. Jesus as God does not need baptism as we do, to be forgiven of Original Sin. Baptism in the case of Jesus is a moment of revelation proclaiming who He is. Today's Gospel reading narrates this picturesquely. When Jesus was baptized, the Holy Spirit descended upon Him and a voice spoke from heaven "You are my Beloved son with you I am well pleased." In Baptism God declares to the world who Jesus is and how much He is pleased with Him.

We are baptized in the name of the Trinity, in the name of God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We are able to participate in the grace of God because Jesus shared with our humanity his divinity by becoming a man. We become God's children because the Father has benevolently accepted us. We receive the Holy Spirit and thus are forgiven of our Original sin and made a Temple of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus' Baptism reminds of what happens to us in our Baptism. Though we are unworthy of becoming God's children because of our natural tendency to sin, we, by God's grace, are accepted and declared as children of God.... we become God's beloved daughters and sons in whom God is well pleased. What God declared of Jesus is declared of us.

Forty eight years ago, a week before Christmas the Parish Community of St. Thomas More was born. At this Christmas 2015 we have begun our 49th year. We thank God's providence for having journeyed with us. We gratefully remember our founding generations and the ongoing generations for their enthusiastic faith-filled participation in bringing up the parish to where we are now – a warm community 'Sharing the Spirit of Love'. Our foregone generation has handed over the torch of faith to us and it is now our turn to keep the flame of faith alive and pass it over to our next generation.... The previous generation worshiped humbly in a 'Coffin Factory and left a church in our hands. Let us add our part of making it a little more alive and enthusiastic, a bit more welcoming and meaningful to our children and grandchildren. If each one of us could bring one more person to our congregation, soon it will become doubly bigger. Please talk to someone; invite anyone and bring everyone. Because 'Sharing the Spirit of Love' is our motto and identity of being the family of St. Thomas More.

We are a living and energetic community of faith and service moving proudly towards our GOLDEN JUBILEE – 50 Grace filled Years of God's community of St. Thomas More. Let us move on to a new phase of our parish in inner spirituality. As we grow as a community let us renew and present our new face of the church to the next generation. Since I took charge of serving this parish as a pastor, I pray daily for God's wisdom and strength for the spiritual growth of our members and physical renewal of our church building to happen meaningfully on the occasion of the Golden Jubilee of our community. I welcome you all to join with me in prayers towards this celebration. Please let me know your suggestions to invigorate our faith-life and to renovate our worship place for our next generation. I am periodically meeting with young families of our parish and listening to their suggestions to grow as a parish-family. I feel their enthusiasm to grow livelier as a parish family. Let us move on into the new phase with a new face of faith and witness.

2015 Contribution Statements: Soon after the New Year we will complete data entries of 2015 into our system. If you want a record of your 2015 contributions for tax purposes, please complete and return the cut-out in the bulletin and return it to the Church Office. We will begin mailing them out towards the end of January.

I shall be in India from January 11 to 22 to visit my elderly mother. Please pray for my family and for my safe journey. I shall see you all soon.

PARISH OUTREACH

Upon Further Reflection

As we reflect on the past year, we wish to express our deepest gratitude to you who have been so generous to us at Outreach. Your kindness in providing food, beverages, monetary donations, toys and whatever else we needed throughout the year is greatly appreciated. Your support allows us to continue to provide assistance to our less fortunate neighbors. Thank you for caring about your community enough to help. We all benefit in the end.

St Vincent de Paul Conference

A Happy New Year to all our fellow parishioners and supporters from the members of our SVdP Conference and the residents of Hauppauge that you helped this year.

HOW WE WORK: The St Thomas More SVdP Conference works closely with Outreach. When the need goes beyond what they can do, they call us. Or, now that we have our direct telephone number (648-2760), we can be called directly by a neighbor in need.

WHAT WE HAVE BEEN DOING: Many calls are coming in for rent assistance. You all know how high rents are on Long Island and one serious illness, accident, or loss of job, can set up a downward spiral toward eviction. Sometimes we can help, sometimes not, but we attempt to find and use as many resources as possible to offer aid.

WHAT YOU CAN DO: Please use, and or give our telephone number to any neighbor who you think could use our help (648-2760). Also please e-mail us at svdp:stm@aol.com with any questions or ideas that you think may be helpful. Visit us on Facebook and pray for our conference that we may continue to “walk in the footsteps of Jesus.”

DONATIONS can be made as follows:

Checks: SVdP St. Thomas More Conference

Cash: place in an envelope that notes SVdP on the front, and leave at the rectory.

BECOME A VINCENTIAN: The only requirement is to have a desire to help. Together, as a conference, we offer the many skills and resources that enable us to assist those in need in our community. If interested, just call or e-mail us.

SAVE THE DATE Saturday, 2/13/2016 — second annual Family St. Valentine Dance.

NEW WEBSITE—ST. THOMAS MORE

Did you know that St. Thomas More has a website? We've had one in various forms since 1996, but we have found that many parishioners don't always make use of it. Recently the STM Pastoral Council has been discussing social media and the Internet at length. Like most communities, we have a growing population of persons who use several types of electronic media to stay in touch with information and keep their lives organized. In order to more effectively communicate parish information, we will be making more use of Facebook and Twitter. We have also re-launched our website with a brand new design.

We even have a much easier to remember web address now: stmli.org (that stands for "St. Thomas More, Long Island").

The website can be viewed not only on your computer, but on a smartphone or tablet as well. You will be able to link to our parish Facebook page and get connected to the Facebook and Twitter accounts of our Religious Education program and our Youth Program.

We will have contributed articles and postings from several areas of the parish, including some of our ministries, and will have a calendar of events covering both regular events as well as the special ones that take place during seasons such as Lent and Advent. There will be several other features added to site in the coming weeks. For now, make sure you check out the new site by going to stmli.org and bookmark it for future use.

RESPECT LIFE NEWS

ADORATION BEFORE THE BLESSED SACRAMENT
HOLY HOUR: Tuesday, February 2, 2016 at 7pm.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process through which adults decide if life as a Catholic Christian is for them.

For those not baptized or baptized in another Christian church, or baptized Catholics who have never received First Communion or Confirmation, and are interested in the process, please call the rectory at 234-5551. Have you or anyone you know had that little persistent feeling that you want to be a practicing member of the St. Thomas More Community? God might be inviting you to inquire about the Catholic Church through the RCIA process.

CIRCLE OF WOMEN

It is the mission of the Circle of Women Book Group to focus on the spiritual influence of contemporary writing that facilitates our own reflections of God's action in our daily lives.

We meet on the second Monday of the month at 2:30pm in Walden Hall. For further information and/or to register, call Marilyn at 234-5805 or Joan at 234-1739.

The following books will be discussed on:

January 11—We are all Completely Beside Ourselves by Karen Joy Fowler—Facilitator—Vivianne Latorre
February 8—Redeeming Love by Francine Rivers—Facilitator—Ann Belluardo

Congratulations

The Administration and Faculty of Our Lady of Mercy Academy has advised that our parishioner Jillian Borghardt, Grade 12 was on the Principal's List for the First Quarter marking period. St. Thomas More is proud of your achievement and wish you continued success.

Lost

a diamond engagement ring belonging to a parishioner who has been married for 52 years. She thinks she lost it on Sunday, January 3, 2016 when she attended the 8 am Mass. It is of great sentimental value to her. If found, please return it either to Fr. Antony or to the Rectory office.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

"Proclaim liberty throughout the land."
Lev. 25-10

Religious Freedom Sunday (Jan. 10) is a national event in which churches inform parents, students, and educators within their congregations about the freedom of religious expression students from Kindergarten through twelfth grade have at school. (religiousfreedomSunday.com - usccb)

Almost 20 years ago, the U.S. Department of Education directed public schools to tell students what their religious freedom are. "Catholics For Freedom of Religion" remembers National Religious Freedom Day, Jan. 16th each year, with "Free to Speak" pamphlets, published by Gateways to Better Education, to help students and teachers know their civil liberties. "We want our young people to be bold in their faith. We have let them know they can be. That it's perfectly legal for them to be bold," said Director Eric Buehrer.

All Americans, liberal and conservative, religious or not, can agree that religious freedom, anchored in conscience rights, is fundamental to U.S. democracy. (Religious Freedom in America, by Allen Hertzke, amazon.com)

"Hold on to the Constitution, for if the American Constitution should fail, there will be anarchy throughout the world." Daniel Webster
