

CONGRATULATIONS AND BLESSINGS TO

OUR FIRST COMMUNICANTS OF APRIL 9-10, 2016

AND TO MATT SURICO who was instituted to the Ministry of Reader (Lector) on Saturday, April 9th at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception along with his five brothers in our diocese's Diaconate Ordination Class of 2018 by Auxiliary Bishop Andrzej Zglejszewski. Although Matt was commissioned as a Lector in the fall of 1984 and has served in that capacity for over 31 years here at St. Thomas More, this institution brings him into greater service to the Church to proclaim the Scriptures at Mass and greater dedication to the Word of God. The Ministry of Reader is formally imparted by the bishop on all men who are in formation to be ordained as deacons and priests.

Pictured (L to R): Matt Surico (St. Thomas More), Michael Whitcomb (St. Patrick, Huntington), John Horn (St. James, Seaford), Fr. Greg Rannazzisi (Director of Deacon Formation), Auxiliary Bishop Andrzej Zglejszewski, Jose Bueno (St. Martha, Uniondale), Jose Nunez (St. Anne, Brentwood), Phil Savarese (St. Anthony, Oceanside).