Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

May 15, 2016
Pentecost Sunday
Acts 2: 1-11
Psalm 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34
1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13
John 20:19-23

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.”

When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you.

As the Father has sent me, so I send you.”

And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.”

Focus Questions:

1. Describe a time when you sensed the Spirit around you.
2. Describe a time when you locked others out of your life because you were afraid.
3. What do the words “I am sending you” call you to do this week?

Family and children’s question:

Talk about a time when you forgave someone who hurt you.

PRAY FOR THE DECEASED

Our deceased loved ones and our deceased servicemen and women.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Mother to fussy son: "Twenty years from now you'll be telling some girl what a great cook your mother was..... now, eat your dinner".

Today is Mother's Day. Every one of us dwelt in our mother's womb for nine months, nurtured, cared, loved and provided for by her. God still continues creating new lives through parents and it is the mother who materializes God's gift of life in her womb. Mothers are the channels of God's continuing work of creation. Let us wish them and pray for them with gratitude that God's blessings be ever upon them for the joy of creation to continue in humanity.

The readings of this week speak about Jesus' care for His believers (Church) that he would never abandon them without any help in their big commission of continuing His Mission. He would be with us forever through the working of the Holy Spirit within us.

The Gospel today is a very heart-moving prayer of Jesus at the Last Supper. He reveals the truth that we are included in the love of God the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. We, the believers are one with the Triune God. He prays that we, the Church of believers might realize this union with God in love: "Holy Father I have given them the glory you gave me, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me that they may be brought to perfection as one."

Next weekend is Pentecost Sunday. Pentecost is a Greek word which means fifty. Next Sunday is the fiftieth day of Easter. On the 50th day Jesus sent the gift of the Holy Spirit from God the Father upon the disciples. Let us pray for the next seven days that we may be able recipients of the Holy Spirit, the Divine Gift of God the Father in the name of His son Jesus Christ.

Red Balloons: Every year we tie red balloons to cars on Pentecost Sunday. This has a spiritual meaning. Red is the color to signify the red flame of fire that settled upon the disciples when they received the Holy Spirit on Pentecost Sunday. The balloon filled with air signifies us who are filled with the Holy Spirit in Baptism, Confirmation and the other Sacraments. The rising balloon means that the Holy Spirit always uplifts us heavenwards. While we thank all those who worked hard to tie the balloons to our cars, please carry them carefully home and tie them to your mail box.... Let everyone know that your household is filled with the divine gift of the Holy Spirit.

Forty-ninth celebration of our Parish Feast. Please mark your calendar for June 10th, 11th and 12th -- the Parish Weekend celebrations. Please look for details inside the bulletin. I kindly request your support of the Parish raffle for the lucky prize of $10,000. A ticket is $50; 3 tickets for $100. Please also make an effort to invite a friend or a parishioner who is not frequently worshipping with us to the celebrations.

Parish Feast Weekend is June 10, 11 and 12.

Thanks to Skyler DeLucia whose Eagle Scout Project is to turn the herb garden near the Saints Chapel at the left corner of the Church into a prayer garden . He beautifies it with grass and flowers bordered by tiles and with benches in the center where one may sit and meditate. We are grateful to him and to all those who helped him to build this prayerful site. Eventually, future Eagle projects will add statues of saints and a water fountain.

PARISH OUTREACH

It's Mother's Day!!!

Mothers should be revered just for the fact that they brought us into the world; however, mothers also are responsible for teaching their children to be unselfish, caring individuals. Consider these two examples:

Cathy Henselder's 6th grade Confirmation class sent in several bags of food. Girl Scout Troop 428, under the leadership of Lisa Costi and Allyson Agosta, with the help of Rylee Agosta, Stephanie Costi, Michela Costigliola and Grace Regan, donated 301 items of food, personal care items, and paper goods. These items were collected as part of the "Food for Friends" food drive that took place throughout Suffolk County recently. Thank you to all the adults who supervised these activities for showing the next generation of adults how to be compassionate, empathetic individuals in their community!

Just to let you know: I was reading a book about anti-gravity. I just couldn't put it down.

St Vincent de Paul Conference

A Blessed Easter season to all! As we all journey towards Pentecost, sometimes referred to as The Birthday of the Church, please pray for all those who journey with us, who may not be as fortunate as we are. A little prayer for our neighbors in need will go a long way!

HOW WE WORK: The St Thomas More SVdP Conference works closely with Outreach. When the need goes beyond what they can do, they call us. Or, now that we have our direct telephone number (648-2760), we can be called directly by a neighbor in need.

WHAT WE HAVE BEEN DOING: We continue to respond to our neighbors' calls for assistance. Very often that need is to lessen/eliminate a possible eviction, often the result of outrageous rents people are forced to pay in order to find any housing on Long Island. A special thank you to a parishioner who used the corporate donor process through their employer which resulted in a sizeable donation to our Conference. Might you have the same opportunity at your place of employment?

WHAT YOU CAN DO: Please use, and or give our telephone number to any neighbor who you think could use our help (648-2760). Also please e-mail us at svdp:stm@aol.com with any questions or ideas that you think may be helpful. Visit us on Facebook and pray for our conference that we may continue to "walk in the footsteps of Jesus."

DONATIONS can be made as follows:

Checks: SVdP St. Thomas More Conference

Cash: place in an envelope that notes SVdP on the front, and leave at the rectory.

BECOME A VINCENTIAN: The only requirement is to have a desire to help. Together, as a conference, we offer the many skills and resources that enable us to assist those in need in our community. If interested, just call or e-mail us.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

Why Does Religious Freedom Matter? (Part 1)

Religious liberty and a thriving religious culture are defining attributes of the U.S., characterizing America as much as its political system and market economy.

"The Government of the U.S., which gives bigotry no sanction, to persecution no assistance, requires only that they who live under its protection should demean themselves as good citizens
George Washington.

The Founders argued that virtue derived from religion is indispensable to limited government. Therefore, the Constitution guaranteed religious freedom while prohibiting the establishment of a national religion.

Today, the religious roots of America and the role of religion in its continued success are poorly understood. One source of the confusion is the misunderstood phrase, "separation of church and state," used by President Thomas Jefferson in a letter to the Danbury Baptist Association of Connecticut in 1802. Many believe this means a radical separation of religion and politics. This is incorrect: Jefferson wanted to protect states' freedom of religion from federal government control and without government interference.

The American model of religious liberty assumes that religious believers and institutions will take active roles in society. In fact, the American Founders considered religious engagement in shaping the public morality essential to ordered liberty and self-government. (heritage.org/why-religious-freedom-matters; by Jennifer Marshall)

"Religion and good morals are the only solid foundation of public liberty and happiness."
Samuel Adams, Founding Father, 1778

As part of the Year of Divine Mercy, we will pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet every Wednesday, at 3:00 pm in the Church.

Youth Ministry Corner

There are still a few spots available for our Annual Teen Retreat, 'A Sign of the Times,' being held June 3-5 at the Don Bosco Retreat Center. Total Cost is $150. Final payments are due on May 22nd.

Many thanks to all the parishioners who stopped by and had breakfast with us last weekend. Our teens appreciate your support. Thanks also to Bernie Pontillo for coordinating the event!

We are always in need of additional adults who would like to serve our young people with love, faith and joy. Please reach out to Joe if you would be interested in joining our Youth Ministry team!
