Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

August 28, 2015
Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29
Psalm 68: 4-5, 6-7, 10-11
Hebrews 12: 18-19, 22-24A
Luke 14:1, 7-14

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

On a sabbath Jesus went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees, and the people there were observing him carefully.

He told a parable to those who had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the places of honor at the table. "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not recline at table in the place of honor. A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited by him, and the host who invited both of you may approach you and say, 'Give your place to this man,' and then you would proceed with embarrassment to take the lowest place. Rather, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place so that when the host comes to you he may say, 'My friend, move up to a higher position.' Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table. For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Then he said to the host who invited him, "When you hold a lunch or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors, in case they may invite you back and you have repayment. Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

Focus Questions:

1. Describe a time when you chose to be humble.
2. Describe a time when you went to an event that included the poor.
3. Describe a time when you witnessed great generosity to those in need.

Family question:

Invite the poor to share a meal with you by donating some food you buy this week to the Parish Outreach.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

My mother-in-law sent me two sweaters for Christmas. When she came for a visit, I put on one of the sweaters. The first thing she said was, "What's the matter? Didn't you like the other one?" Wearing one would not mean the other is not liked. When one is worn the other is waiting to be worn.

Every religion or every path of experiencing God within a religion is but a starting point. We start somewhere in order to reach the perfect union with God in Heaven. If God is the goal then every religion in its perfect or imperfect way becomes a path leading to eternal living with God.

In today's first reading Isaiah visions that all the paths of different religions lead to the similar experience of God in the Holy Mountain in Jerusalem. In the Gospel when the disciples doubt that all might not have chance for salvation, Jesus explains that salvation is the work of God among humans. God works with all people. God is not partial. God opens the door for all. Salvation is nothing but the humble acceptance of what God offers to us. Salvation is a free gift from God and not merely the reward for the good works that we have done.

Our good works are not money by which we buy our salvation. Good works are merely our cooperation with God to work in us. As Mary, our Blessed mother proclaims in her Song of Thanksgiving, Magnificat, "All generations will call me blessed for The Almighty has done great things for me." Salvation is to allow ourselves to be at the service of God as Mary did, "Behold I am your handmaid; may it be done according to your Word." Let us imitate Mary and pray through her intercession to allow the work of God to take place in us.

Golden Jubilee – 50 years of God working among us: We are a community having different kind of spiritual gifts but the same spirit, doing different forms of service but in the same Lord; different workings but the same God who produces all of them in every one. (Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians 12:4-6). Space and the building of St. Thomas More are only external symbols. Names and number of our parishioners are only an external witness of the inner reality of God working in us; Christ gives the reason for our working and the Holy Spirit becomes the power and passion of the work that is happening among us. Let the celebration of the Golden Jubilee be one of realizing God's working among us and passing it to our younger generations. Let each of us make an effort to bring ourselves to this realization.

Especially the Sanctuary needs to be renovated. The tabernacle, the Eucharistic Presence of Jesus, is not visible. At the death of Jesus the thick veil dividing the people from God's presence was torn and God's Holy of Holies was exposed to the people. (Mt 27:51; Mk 15:38). Our Church has a wall between the presence and the gathering of the congregation. Our sanctuary space is so narrow that during weddings, con-celebrations and on regular Sundays when all Eucharistic ministers are gathered, we are too congested and do not have enough space to move around. Our sanctuary has four different levels which can cause tripping and stumbling. Our parking lot also needs to be repaved. I explained these needs to people of different groups who welcomed the need for renovations. I wrote to the diocese expressing our needs and they asked me to do some preliminary studies of what we propose to do and how we will finance this project..

Our annual Golf Outing will be on Monday September 12th at Rock Hill Golf course in Manorville. All golfers are welcome. If you are not a golfer, you can still support this parish fund raising event by buying raffle tickets. Tickets are $10 each or three for $20, sold in the Narthex. This bulletin carries more information. Our Golf Committee is working hard for its success. Let us support them in 'sharing the spirit of Love' and in memory of our late beloved Pastor Msgr. Midura.

You are invited to St. Thomas More Beach Mass and Picnic. Please remember to mark your calendar for September 18th at Otto Schubert Beach, Nissequogue, starting with Mass at noon. Picnic follows the mass with burgers, hot dogs, chips, and beverages. Please fill the Response Form found in the bulletin and be a part of our parish celebration at the beach.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

Prayer for Those Affected by the Floods
 God of compassion,
 You created a world for us
 To know your love and peace
 Yet amidst the beauty of creation
 We encounter pain and hurt
 And forces beyond our control.
 At times like this our hearts are shaken and ache with sorrow
 At the destruction of our lives, homes and livelihoods.
 Hear our prayers for those affected by the floods
 And for all those working
 To bring relief and fresh hope.
 -Amen

Remember in your prayers
 ALL THOSE AFFECTED BY THE RECENT FLOODING

CATHOLICS FOR FREEDOM OF RELIGION

Troubling Trends - Part 2:

* Assisted Suicide: Alliance Defending Freedom attorneys have filed suit in federal court against medical licensing authorities in Vermont on behalf of health care professionals who wish to abide by their oath to "do no harm". The state agencies are construing Vermont's assisted suicide law as requiring them, regardless of their conscience or oath, to counsel patients on doctor-prescribed death as an option. (adflegal.org, 7/26/16)

* Judges in Belgium have ordered a Catholic nursing home to pay a fine and damages to a family for refusing to allow a fatal injection for a patient. A report said the judges found St. Augustine Nursing Home "had no right to refuse euthanasia on the basis of conscientious objection."

* In Oregon, between 2014-2015, assisted suicide deaths rose by 80%. (wnd.com, 7/21/16)

* A young Philadelphia woman was put into hospice without a medical basis and purposefully deprived of nutrition after being moved out of ICU to a step-down floor following hospitalization for cardiac arrest in mid-April. Her boyfriend contacted Life Legal Defense Foundation (LLDF) for intervention. "This person who I love dearly was being killed."

A lessening respect for the health of the medically vulnerable and elderly is a sign of the times in healthcare, with their care having become more expensive, said an LLDF attorney. "It's appalling. It's barbaric. People need to know this sort of thing is going on." (lifesitenews.com, 8/2/16; crossmap.com, 8/2/16)

"For our struggle is not with flesh and blood but with the principalities, with the powers, with the world rulers of this present darkness," Ephesians 6:12
