January 15, 2017
Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Isaiah 49:3, 5-6
Psalm 40:2, 4, 7-8, 8-9, 10
1 Corinthians 1:1-3
John 1:29-34

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:

John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. He is the one of whom I said, 'A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.' I did not know him, but the reason why I came baptizing with water was that he might be made known to Israel." John testified further, saying, "I saw the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven and remain upon him. I did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'On whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain, he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.' Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God."

Focus questions:

1. Describe a time when you learned something surprising about someone you thought you knew.
2. Relate a time when you felt God was making himself known to you.
3. When did you first encounter Christ?

Family and children's question:

Talk about your Baptism and what made it so special.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Young man to his grandfather: “Why do you keep reading the Bible all day long?”

Grandfather: “Well, I am cramming for my final examination.”

Reading the Bible not only reveals who God is and how God acts, but more importantly reveals to us who we are and how we can be meaningfully alive. The Bible shows who God is and makes us see who we are.

Today is the Feast of the Epiphany. It celebrates how God reveals divine nature in human form to the magi, the wise men from the East. On the way to Bethlehem they actually met the local king, Herod to find out from him where the real king is born. Herod had all the necessary trappings to be recognized as a King, such as a palace, servants, soldiers, ministers etc. But as today's Gospel says the magi did homage and presented the royal gifts not to Herod but to the child born to poor parents in the insignificant village of Bethlehem. In the baby Jesus the magi recognized the kingship which they could not identify in Herod.

Revelation takes place to those who seek to see. Revelation if taken as a show is only one half of the picture of the one who shows it but the other half is its recognition by the one who sees it. Revelation is not merely shown but seen. Herod showed himself as King but the magi were not looking for him. God too shows (reveals) but unless we look for Him and until we willfully acknowledge His presence, God would remain obscure and hidden. Let us also take up a journey like the magi to seek God in order to find Him. Let us knock at the door of God's house to experience God's presence. Let us pray in order to hear what God says to us.

Jubilee Year: We began the Golden Jubilee year of our Parish on Christmas day. Please pray that this year may bring all the promised blessings of God for the Jubilee of our faith life in our hearts and homes. You may have taken the Jubilee package containing 1) a magnet to remind us every day about this year, 2) the holy picture of St. Thomas More with a prayer to pray for our family 3) the jubilee calendar inviting us to be part of the year-long celebrations and 4) the picture of the spacious and safer sanctuary welcoming us to renovate our church together for the next generations. The Jubilee package is still available on the bulletin stand for those who did not get them yet. Let us celebrate our jubilee.

2016 Contribution Statements: Soon after the New Year we will complete data entries of 2016 into our system. If you want a record of your 2016 contributions for tax purposes, please complete and return the cut-out in the bulletin and return it to the Church Office. We will begin mailing them out towards the end of January.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

PARISH OUTREACH

Happy New Year to all!!!!!!

We at Outreach hope that all our parishioners have a very happy and healthy New Year! Thanks to all of you, we were tremendously successful in our efforts to give aid to the less fortunate of our community. We provided food, gift cards so the children could be given a gift at Christmas, like shoes or clothing, in addition to the toys we distributed, as well as useful items for the adults who needed them. The St. Thomas More parish should be proud of its efforts at this holiday time to provide relief for those suffering deprivation, and in bringing a respite to the stress of the season. Of course, the need will still be there throughout the year for food, so please continue to donate what you can, when you can.

Thank you, and may God Bless You.

Happy New Year!

CATHOLICS FOR FREEDOM OF RELIGION

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

"Truth will ultimately prevail where there is pains to bring it to light."

George Washington

Bigotry Against Christians in America:

* Students at the publicly-funded University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire are given community service credit for attending Planned Parenthood presentations but not for teaching classes to children in a Christian environment. Students were denied credit because the classes met at a Catholic church and focused on Christian values and beliefs.

Alliance Defending Freedom filed a legal complaint alleging the students' Constitutional rights were violated because "no public university should ever use a community service program as a vehicle to advance and instill anti-religious bias lifesitenews.com, 11/30/16; liveactionnews.org, 12/3/16)

* Over the past several years, same-sex activists have targeted Christian small businesses for harassment. Christian florists, bakers, photographers, t-shirt printers, etc. have seen these activists come into their businesses, make demands they knew would put these Christians in conflict with their religious beliefs, then turned to various state governments to punish those Christians who refused to violate their faith.
theresurgent.com, 12/1/16; townhall.com, 12/2/16)

Notes to Consider:

"Your faith isn't private, and it's more than where you worship on Sundays. It's who you are, and it influences the way you live every day of the week."

"But today, efforts are being made to remove religion's moral influence on society by censoring it from the public square. People of faith are increasingly threatened, punished and silenced for simply living according to their beliefs." (adflegal.org)

"If we are to guard against ignorance and remain free, it is the responsibility of every American to be informed."

Thomas Jefferson

Parish History Project

Work continues on the video documentary of our parish's history for the Golden Jubilee. We thank those that have contributed personal memories and pictures so far.

We could still use more! We really would love photos, prayer cards, flyers, etc., from the years 1967-1980. Photos of sacraments are very welcome!

And we especially would love to speak with you if you would like to share your memories on camera about those early years, whatever your role in the parish was, even if you simply have a fond memory of a particular member of the clergy. This is a video documentary, so the more people we have that can add their slice of history, the better the video will be.

If you can help us out, please contact us at a special address we've set up: history@stmli.org, or if you run into me, please feel free to speak about it directly. Thank you!
