Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

February 12, 2017
Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Isaiah 58: 7-10
Psalm 112: 4-5, 6-7, 8-9
1 Corinthians 2: 1-5
Matthew 5: 20-22A, 27-28, 33-34A, 37

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew:

Jesus said to his disciples:

"I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven.

"You have heard that it was said to your ancestors, You shall not kill; and whoever kills will be liable to judgment.

But I say to you, whoever is angry with brother will be liable to judgment.

"You have heard that it was said, You shall not commit adultery.

But I say to you, everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

"Again you have heard that it was said to your ancestors, Do not take a false oath, but make good to the Lord all that you vow.

But I say to you, do not swear at all. Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and your 'No' mean 'No.' Anything more is from the evil one."

Focus questions:

1. Describe a time when you witnessed anger that led to something worse.
2. Relate a time when doing the minimum to get by was no longer good enough for you.
3. Relate a time when swearing was a problem for you.

Family and children's question:

In today's Gospel, Jesus challenges us to look within ourselves to see whether we are acting out of love or just doing what is expected of us. How can you become a more loving person?

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

The bus was crowded. The highway was very busy and the road was snow-covered. A woman passenger persisted in asking the driver if he had come to her stop yet.

Finally she asked, "How will I know when we get to my stop?"

The driver said, "By the big smile on my face, lady."

'From the fullness of the heart mouth speaks' (Mt. 12:34). The body is just an expression of what the heart is filled with. If the heart is full of light we begin to shine. If the heart is bitter, our words sound horrible and the looks flare fiercely.

Today's second reading describes that we are spiritually potent. We, like Paul, are the demonstration of God's Spirit and Power. Our life, as an expression of our belief in God, does not rest on human wisdom but on the power of God.

Today's Gospel empowers us to portray that we are the salt of the earth and the light of the world. With the power of God working in us, we can act like salt. Just as salt flavors food, so too can we bring the taste of God in whatever we do and with whomever we relate. God has filled us with divine light so that our activities and behavior can shine God's light.

If only we decide to live our true identity from God we would be like the city on the mountain top that cannot be hidden. But we can also choose to be sluggish and dull about our inner Godly power; then, as Jesus says, we would lose the taste of salt, our true essence, to be trampled underfoot or we would snuff out our inner Godly light by putting ourselves under a bushel. Let us shine God's light. May our words and deeds bring the taste of God.

We have a New Bishop the Most Rev. John Barres. On Tuesday, January 31 Bishop John Barres was installed as the Fifth Bishop of our Diocese. He begins his ministry of being a Shepherd with the motto "Holiness and Mission". He explained in his sermon that we are called to be holy through the word of God and sacraments that we may be sent as God's missionaries with God's power and message of love. We welcome him. We assure him of our prayers. We join hands with him in becoming God's missionaries to build God's kingdom in love and service.

For the month of February we have two celebrations to highlight our Golden Jubilee. 1) All the First graders with their families will have a family bingo night on Monday, February 13th. This is tuned towards the young families. 2) On Saturday, February 18th following the 5:00 pm Mass, the St. Vincent DePaul Conference of our Parish will host a Valentine Sock Hop. All are welcome. Tickets are sold in the Narthex. Come let us celebrate with our families. Come, be a part of our history.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

PARISH OUTREACH

The results are in, regarding our Christmas bounty!!!!
Our Giving Tree brought in $9,685 in gift cards; there were more than 425 toys donated; there were 36 towel sets for Mercy Haven and 64 infant outfits for the Life Center. We were able to donate to 55 parish families and four charities. Many, many thanks to all who donated, whether to the Giving Tree or in gifts to Outreach directly. Also, we would like to thank the families who are participating in the Calendar Club, and have assigned one or more of their numbers to Outreach!!!

“Amen I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.” Matthew 25:40

St Vincent de Paul Conference

We have been made aware of a family here in our Hauppauge community in need of help. The family has just lost their father who was the sole provider and caretaker. He leaves behind five boys who are trying to keep their family together and to stay in the home that they grew up in. A GoFundMe page has been created by a community resident to help the boys try to achieve this goal. Below is the link to the GoFundMe page. If you can, please go to the page and donate whatever is within your means. A little bit of help by many can achieve things we can't even imagine. Thank you and God Bless.

CATHOLICS FOR FREEDOM OF RELIGION

"For the most part, we are aware of the persecution and martyrdom of Christians around the world, but we tend to be naive about the threat to religious freedom right here in America."

Msgr. James M. McNamara, L.I. Catholic,

Atheist group wins battle to pull cross from Veterans Memorial Park:

Belle Plaine, MN - A monument depicting the silhouette of a soldier kneeling at the grave of a fallen comrade with a headstone marked by a cross, has had the cross cut off.

"It's a grave marker - in this instance, it's not a religious symbol," said a resident from a family of veterans. "It's frustrating to see that one or two people are allowed to speak for a town of over 3,00 people," said another resident, who started a movement to fight back by displaying crosses in front yards and nearby businesses.

Also, a nearby manufacturing plant will deliver 400 copies of the original metal statue - cross and all - to the veterans club for residents to purchase and display on their own property. (startribune.com, 1/25/17; alphanewsmn.com, 1/19/17)

"Hall of Shame" 2016 report:

For the first time, the United States has been named among the top 12 nations where Christians are targeted for their faith by International Christian Concern (ICC), a persecution watchdog group. "While conditions in the U.S. are in no way comparable to other countries on the list, a certain segment of the culture and the courts seem to be intent on driving faith out of the public square. There have been too many court cases with bad decisions to miss the clear trend line," said Jeff King, president of ICC.

* St. Pius X, Plainview, hosted our "Free To Speak" to 100 catechists and 7th & 8th grade students in January.

Parish History Project

Work continues on the video documentary of our parish's history for the Golden Jubilee. We thank those that have contributed personal memories and pictures so far.

We could still use more! We really would love photos, prayer cards, flyers, etc., from the years 1967-1989. Photos of sacraments are very welcome!

And we especially would love to speak with you if you would like to share your memories on camera about those early years, whatever your role in the parish was, even if you simply have a fond memory of a particular member of the clergy. This is a video documentary, so the more people we have that can add their slice of history, the better the video will be.

If you can help us out, please contact us at a special address we've set up: history@stmli.org, or if you run into me, please feel free to speak about it directly. Thank you!

St. Thomas More would like to introduce our current Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers and Altar Servers, along with their parents, to our new online Ministry Scheduler Program.

If you're afraid of committing, relax. Online access to your schedule and preferences makes it easier than ever to stay involved at your pace. If you're going on vacation or need to change service times, just enter your dates online. When the unexpected comes up, instead of calling a long list of contacts to find a sub, you can easily submit your request from your smartphone, or fill in for someone who can't make it. And if you have family that serves, MSP makes sure you're not coming to different services on the same weekend. Now you can share your talents and keep control of your time.

We will be having training sessions to introduce this program on Saturday, February 4th after the 9:00 Mass and February 17th at 7:00 pm. Please attend one session at your convenience.

If you are interested in joining one of these ministries please contact the rectory.

Congratulations !
