Mark 10:46-52 (Ordinary 30)

As Jesus was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a sizable crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind man, the son of Timaeus, sat by the roadside begging. On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me." And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he kept calling out all the more, "Son of David, have pity on me."

Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." So they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you." He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus. Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.

Focus Questions for Ordinary 30

Mark 10:46-52

- 1: Describe a time when your faith healed you.
- 2: Relate a time when you called out to Jesus for help and help came.
- 3: Relate a time when you had difficulty seeing.

Family & Children's Question:

Talk about the importance of prayer when you feel lost or uncertain. Share an experience of a time when your prayer was answered.

Fr. Antony's Letter

Dear Friends,

A woman lost her purse in a shopping center. An honest lad found it and returned it to her. "That's funny," commented the woman, "before I lost my bag, there was a twenty-dollar bill in it. Now I find two fives and ten one-dollar bills."

That's right lady," agreed the honest lad. "The last time I found a lady's purse, she didn't have any change for a reward."

The disciples expected something as a reward from Jesus for having followed Him. Once Peter asked Jesus, "We have left everything to follow you! What then will there be for us?" In today's Gospel, James and John (the sons of Zebedee), came to Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." They were ready to do anything Jesus would ask, to get these places of honor in Jesus' kingdom.

In answer to their wish, Jesus explained how God reigns in His Kingdom.

The positions in the Kingdom are not like those one gets in a human world. They are not rewarded for the person's performance. No one claims the ladder by outperforming the other. In Jesus's kingdom no one is a boss to order the other, nor is anyone under the other to be treated at the wish and self-advantage of the other.

The Kingdom belongs to God who calls people as servants to each other. The kingdom people are empowered to live as Jesus, the Son of God did, who lived proclaiming and establishing God's kingdom not by being served but by serving. Service is the essential mode of living as kingdom people. One climbs up the ladder to be a boss only by their readiness to be a servant of all whose boss they are.

'To be in authority over people' must be founded in 'one's will and readiness to serve them'. The first reading is the Isaian prophesy foretelling how God would save the people by sending his servant who would accomplish salvation through His suffering and affliction. God's leadership is not in claiming one's power over the people but in surrendering the self in serving. Only by becoming a slave serving the world His salvation from the Cross, Jesus lived His Godhood. In Christ's words, authority means service. The slave of the people is their leader.

In the second reading we are invited to realize the same truth. God healed the guilt and alleviated the suffering of many by sending his Son as a servant suffering for them. God's servant, Jesus is the one who sympathizes with our weaknesses by being tested in every way like us. Knowing all our suffering and pain, Jesus served God's mercy to us. So let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.

During the month of November, we pray for the dead. Starting Saturday the 2nd of November to Thursday the 7th of November, we pray the Novena masses for all the deceased. Please include the names of your beloved deceased in the All-Souls envelopes and place them in the collection basket by October 31st. All Soul envelopes are found in the Narthex.

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

Please reach out to Parish Outreach if you are, or know of someone, in need of support. Keep our elderly neighbors in mind and let us know if there is anyone you would like us to reach out to.

Restock

In the Gospel today, Jesus tells his disciples: “Anyone among you who aspires to greatness must serve the rest; whoever wants to rank first among you must serve the needs of all.”

Our parishioners hear these words and always respond in a very generous way. CAN YOU HELP NOW? Our greatest need right now is to raise the funds needed to help others, but due to the recent damage to our church, that must be delayed a few months. PLEASE consider making a donation at this time.

Call us at 631-648-2760 or email us at svdp.stm@aol.com. THANK YOU

Summation:

As you may note, fiscal year 2023-2024 ended with a modest improvement in our financial position. Our collections increased over the previous year despite the impact of inflation felt by each household. We thank you for your generosity in these fiscally challenging times. The significant increase in non-operating income was due to the growth of our investments and diligent management of our investment portfolio.

The expenses incurred also showed improvement from the previous year. The most significant change was the reduction in salaries and fringe benefits which resulted from having the staff work part-time rather than full time. On the other hand, the other accounts indicated minor changes in expenses accrued. The net result was an approximately $30,000 improvement in our fiscal posture year to year.

Submitted by Financial Committee, approved by Father Antony Asir

The Rosary

AND WHY WE SHOULD PRAY IT DAILY

THE FOLLOWING COME DIRECTLY FROM MARY, AS GIVEN TO ST DOMINIC AND BLESSED ALAN DE LA ROCHE

1: Those who faithfully serve me by the recitation of the Rosary shall receive signal graces.

2: I promise my special protection and the greatest graces to all those who shall recite the Rosary.

3: The Rosary shall be a powerful armor against hell. It will destroy vice, decrease sin, and defeat heresies.

4: The recitation of the Rosary will cause virtue and good works to flourish. It will obtain for souls the abundant mercy of God.

5: The soul which recommends itself to me by the recitation of the Rosary shall not perish.

6: Those who recite my Rosary devoutly, applying themselves to the consideration of its sacred mysteries, shall never be conquered by misfortune.

7: Those who have a true devotion to the Rosary shall not die without the sacraments of the Church.

8: Those who faithfully recite the Rosary shall have, during their life and at their death, the light of God and the plenitude of His graces.

9: I shall deliver from purgatory those who have been devoted to the Rosary.

10: The faithful children of the Rosary shall merit a high degree of glory in heaven.

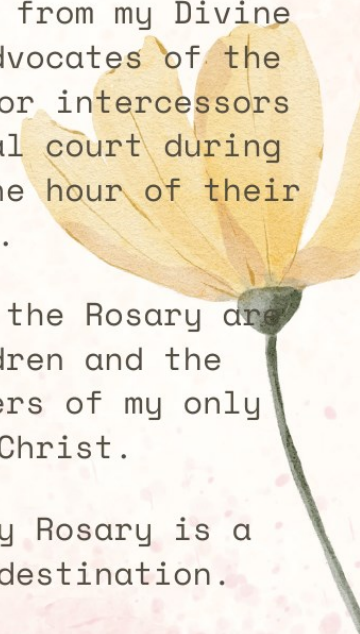

11: By the recitation of the Rosary you shall obtain all that you ask of me.

12: Those who propagate the holy Rosary shall be aided by me in their necessities.

13: I have obtained from my Divine Son that all the advocates of the Rosary shall have for intercessors the entire celestial court during their life and at the hour of their death.

14: All who recite the Rosary are my beloved children and the brothers and sisters of my only Son, Jesus Christ.

15: Devotion for my Rosary is a great sign of predestination.
