Families: Talk about how Jesus is with you always, especially when you feel alone or afraid.

Gospel of John (20:19-23)

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews,

Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you."

When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side.

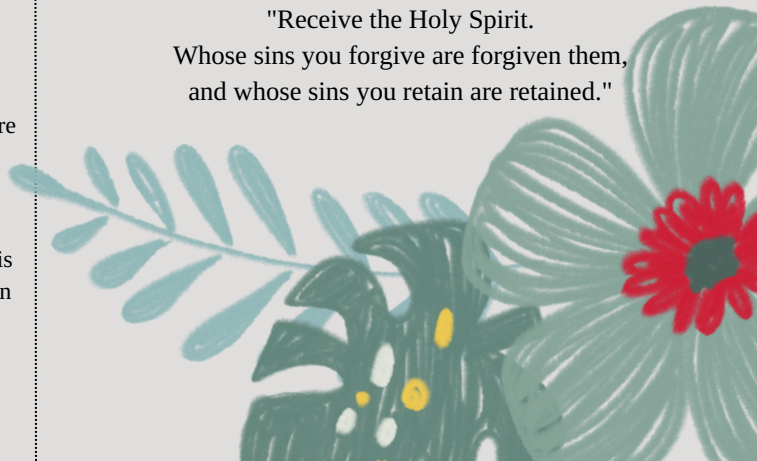

The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you.

As the Father has sent me, so I send you."

And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit.

Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

From the Pastor

Dad suggested that the family get him a gift that the whole family could get something out of. So, they did. They bought Dad a new wallet. This past Thursday was the 40th day of Jesus' resurrection. We celebrated the feast of Jesus' Ascension. This coming Sunday is the 50th day (the Greek word 'Pentecost' means 50) of Christ's resurrection. Next Sunday we will celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Church to guide it, to sanctify it, and to bring it to fulfillment in Heaven. The feasts of Ascension and Pentecost mean somewhat the same. By the Ascension, Jesus ends His earthly mission and goes back to God the Father. Pentecost is the feast of the Holy Spirit coming down upon the Church as God, the Father's gift, the whole family could get everything it needs.

The Gospel today is a deeply heart-moving prayer of Jesus at the Last Supper. He reveals the truth that we are included in the love of God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. We, the believers are one with the Triune God. He prays that we, the Church of believers might realize this union with God in love: "Holy Father, I have given them the glory you gave me, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me that they may be brought at perfection as one."

Next weekend is Pentecost Sunday. Pentecost is a Greek word which means fifty. Next Sunday is the fiftieth day of Easter. On the 50th day Jesus sent the gift of the Holy Spirit from God the Father upon the disciples. Let us pray for the next seven days that we may be able recipients of the Holy Spirit, the Divine Gift of God the Father in the name of His son Jesus Christ. Next weekend we celebrate the Feast of our Parish Patron, St. Thomas More, who was married twice and was the father of four children.

The nine days between Ascension and Pentecost are novena days when the whole Catholic Church ardently prays for the reception of the Holy Spirit, to be filled with the divine gifts. Still there are seven more days to join the Novena of the Church. Also we pray the novena to our patron Saint Thomas More.

Please find the novena prayers to pray to the Holy Spirit and through St. Thomas More. Join us in praying the Novena prayers every day that the Holy Spirit comes upon our families, especially upon our children. They live in a world exposed to confusing choices and various ideals and philosophies. They need the gift of discernment to choose the right thing, the gift of fortitude to walk by it, the gift of wisdom not to drift away from it, following in the model of St. Thomas More who would not compromise the truth even when he had to be imprisoned and finally beheaded.

Novena prayer to the Holy Spirit:

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created, and you will renew the face of the earth.

O God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit didst instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Spirit we may be truly wise and ever rejoice in His consolation.

Through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Novena Prayer through St. Thomas More.

O St. Thomas More, patron of my family and my parish, please PRAY that my family may find in each other what yours found in you: friendship and courage, cheerfulness and charity, diligence in duties, counsel in adversity, patience in pain—their good servant, and God's first. Grant all my petitions through Christ our Lord, Amen.

With love and prayers,
Father Antony

Pope Leo is the first Pope to be born in the USA, and is the second Pope to be a citizen of South America!

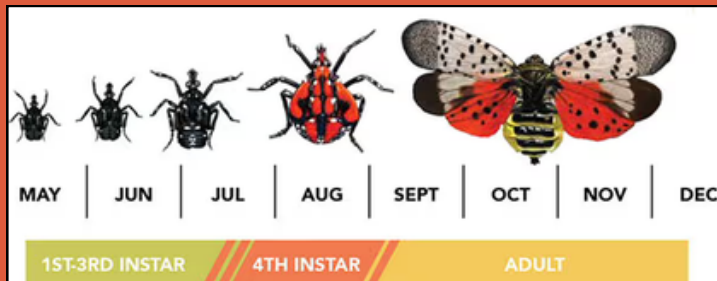

Spotted Lanternflies: The Return

These invasive little monsters are back for the season, and we need to do our best to stop them! They can damage trees, and love to eat our local agricultural plants, particularly grapes and apples. They have very few natural predators in the US, so we need to do our part! STOMP! STOMP! STOMP!

A first or second stage instar, spotted on your bulletin editor's Dahlias over Memorial Day Weekend. Check the stems and undersides of the leaves!

When in the early instar/nymph stages they can be too small and quick to squish, so vinegar is your best friend. Give them a few sprays with plain white vinegar (it won't kill immediately, but quickly). The vinegar shouldn't hurt your plants, but you can also rinse your plants with water after to be extra certain.

Reflections on the 2025 DRVC Eucharistic Pilgrimage & Congress

by Deacon Matt

We're all missionaries. Our mission begins at our baptism. It begins to take form as we begin to experience God through our parents, our godparents, our faith community, and the rest of the world. Some of us have traveled to far away places. Some of us haven't ventured very far from the town where we were born. But in all of our journeys and all of our experiences, we believe that God is with us - the same Immanuel we proclaim at Christmas, the same Lord who gave his life for us on the Cross, he is walking that journey of mission with us. Our mission is bring each other closer to God and build his Kingdom here on earth. We need food for that journey, and so Jesus gives himself to us in the Eucharist. And from time to time, we need to recognize the Church is made up of people of different cultures and experiences, whose mission takes on slightly different appearances, but all of whom share this one common goal of the Kingdom, and join up with them. I personally invite each of you to consider stepping away from your usual routines and experience our brothers and sisters from across Long Island who are renewing their commitment to mission. Plan a little time this week to walk just a small portion of the Eucharistic Pilgrimages that are now working their way to a central location. Spend a little time with the Lord in the evening at a church the diocese has designated as a Pilgrimage reflection location. Celebrate with your fellow St. Thomas More parishioners on Pentecost Sunday and then join other Long Island Catholics at that central location, St. Anthony's High School. In all of these events, may each of us rediscover and rejuvenate ourselves for our mission. Jesus will be with us in a special way in this Eucharistic Pilgrimage and Congress. Let us experience him together.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Today's Gospel features a prayer by Jesus. Where/when did this prayer occur?

- a: The Garden of Gethsemane
- b: The Last Supper
- c: Wedding at Cana
- d: Sermon on the Mount

Answer: B (The Last Supper).

Spare us O Lord.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world;
Graciously hear us O Lord.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world;
Have mercy on us.

Dear St. Thomas More, you had a very strong faith in the providence of God to completely surrender every moment of your life to the holy will of God. I pray through your intercession that I may be freed all our fears and anxieties; that I may face life with courage and joy. Pray for me that God may grant me and my family good health and cheer of heart. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Day

(for each of us)

Dear St. Thomas More, in your earthly life, you were a model of prudence. You never thrust yourself rashly into any serious undertaking; instead, you tested the strength of your powers and waited on God's will in prayer and penance, then boldly carried it out without hesitation. Through your prayers and intercession, obtain for me the virtues of patience, prudence, wisdom and courage. Our Father...Hail Mary...Glory Be...

Second Day

(for our Children)

Dear St. Thomas More, in your earthly life, you were a model of diligence. You shunned procrastination, applied yourself with fervor to your studies, and spared no effort in achieving mastery in any skill. Through your prayers and intercession, obtain for our children the virtue of diligence and persistence in my preparations for all undertakings. Our Father...Hail Mary...Glory Be

Third Day

(for the unemployed)

Dear St. Thomas More, in your earthly life, you were a model of industriousness. You threw yourself wholeheartedly into everything you did, and you found enjoyment even in the most serious things. Through your prayers and intercession, obtain for me the grace of always having suitable employment, the grace to find interest in everything fitting, and the fortitude always to pursue excellence in whatever task God gives me to do. Our Father...Hail Mary...Glory Be...

Fourth Day

(for peace with those we struggle to live with)

Dear St. Thomas More, in your earthly life, you were a brilliant lawyer and a just and compassionate judge. You attended to the smallest details of your legal duties with the greatest care, and you were unflagging in your pursuit of justice tempered by mercy. Through your prayers and intercession, obtain for me the grace to overcome every temptation to laxity, arrogance, and rash judgment in my (legal) duties. Our Father...Hail Mary...Glory Be...

Fifth Day

(for those who suffer addictions)

Dear St. Thomas More, in your earthly life, you were a model of humility. You never allowed pride to lead you to take on enterprises beyond your abilities; even in the midst of earthly wealth and honor, you never forgot your total dependence on your Heavenly Father. Through your prayers and intercession, obtain for me the grace of an increase in humility, and the wisdom not to overestimate my own powers. Our Father...Hail Mary...Glory Be...

Sixth Day

(for a happy home and peace in the family)

Dear St. Thomas More, in your earthly life, you were a model husband and father. You were loving and faithful to both of your wives, and a diligent provider and example of virtue for your children. Through your prayers and intercession, obtain for me the grace of a happy home, peace in my family, and the strength to persevere in chastity according to my state of life. Our Father...Hail Mary...Glory Be...

Seventh Day

(for health and spiritual welfare)

Dear St. Thomas More, in your earthly life, you were a model of Christian fortitude. You suffered bereavement, disgrace, poverty, imprisonment and a violent death; yet you bore all with the strength and good cheer for which you were known throughout your life. Through your prayers and intercession, obtain for me the grace to bear all the crosses that God sends me with patience and joy. Our Father...Hail Mary...Glory Be...

Eighth Day

(for the gift of discernment)

Dear St. Thomas More, in your earthly life, you were a loyal child of God and a steadfast son of the Church, never taking your eyes off the crown for which you strove. Even in the face of death, you trusted in God to give you the victory, and He rewarded you with the palm of martyrdom. Through your prayers and intercession, obtain for me and mine the grace of final perseverance and protection from sudden and unprovided death, so that we may one day enjoy the Beatific Vision in your glorious company. Our Father...Hail Mary...Glory Be...

Ninth Day

(for the special needs of the family)

Dear St. Thomas More, you spent your whole earthly life preparing for the life to come. Everything you endured prepared you not only for the glory God wished to bestow upon you in heaven, but for your work as the patron of lawyers, judges and statesmen, and steadfast friend to all who call upon you. Through your prayers and intercession, obtain for us aid in all our necessities, both corporal and spiritual, and the grace to follow in your footsteps, until at last we are safely home with you in the mansions our Father has prepared for us in heaven. Our Father...Hail Mary...Glory Be..
